I guessed this year could only be my dream

I kept it safe —

a dark secret of my heart

I hid it there as time ran on ahead;

too fast

HIS
ON

THE PARK
We ran through the park barefoot, hand in hand
as sunbeams danced
He picked for me a bouquet of lilacs, containing a tiny ladybug and all the love he had to give We drifted into an understanding unaware of our feelings until it was too late to turn back I've not yet found the words to
I was only looking for a friend

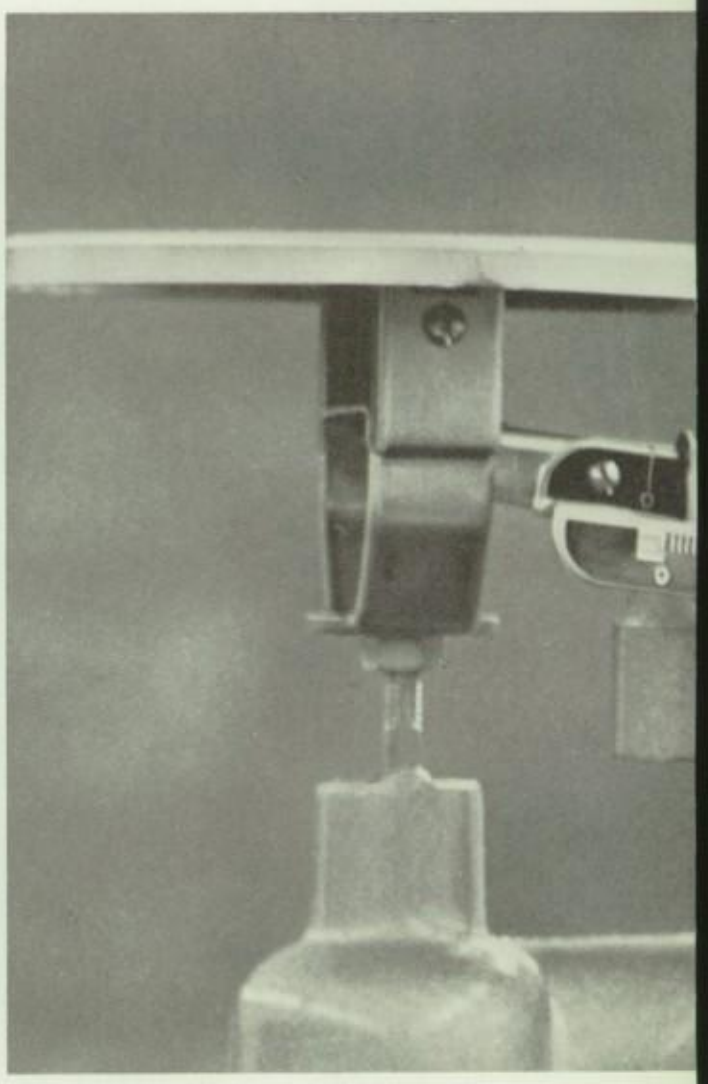
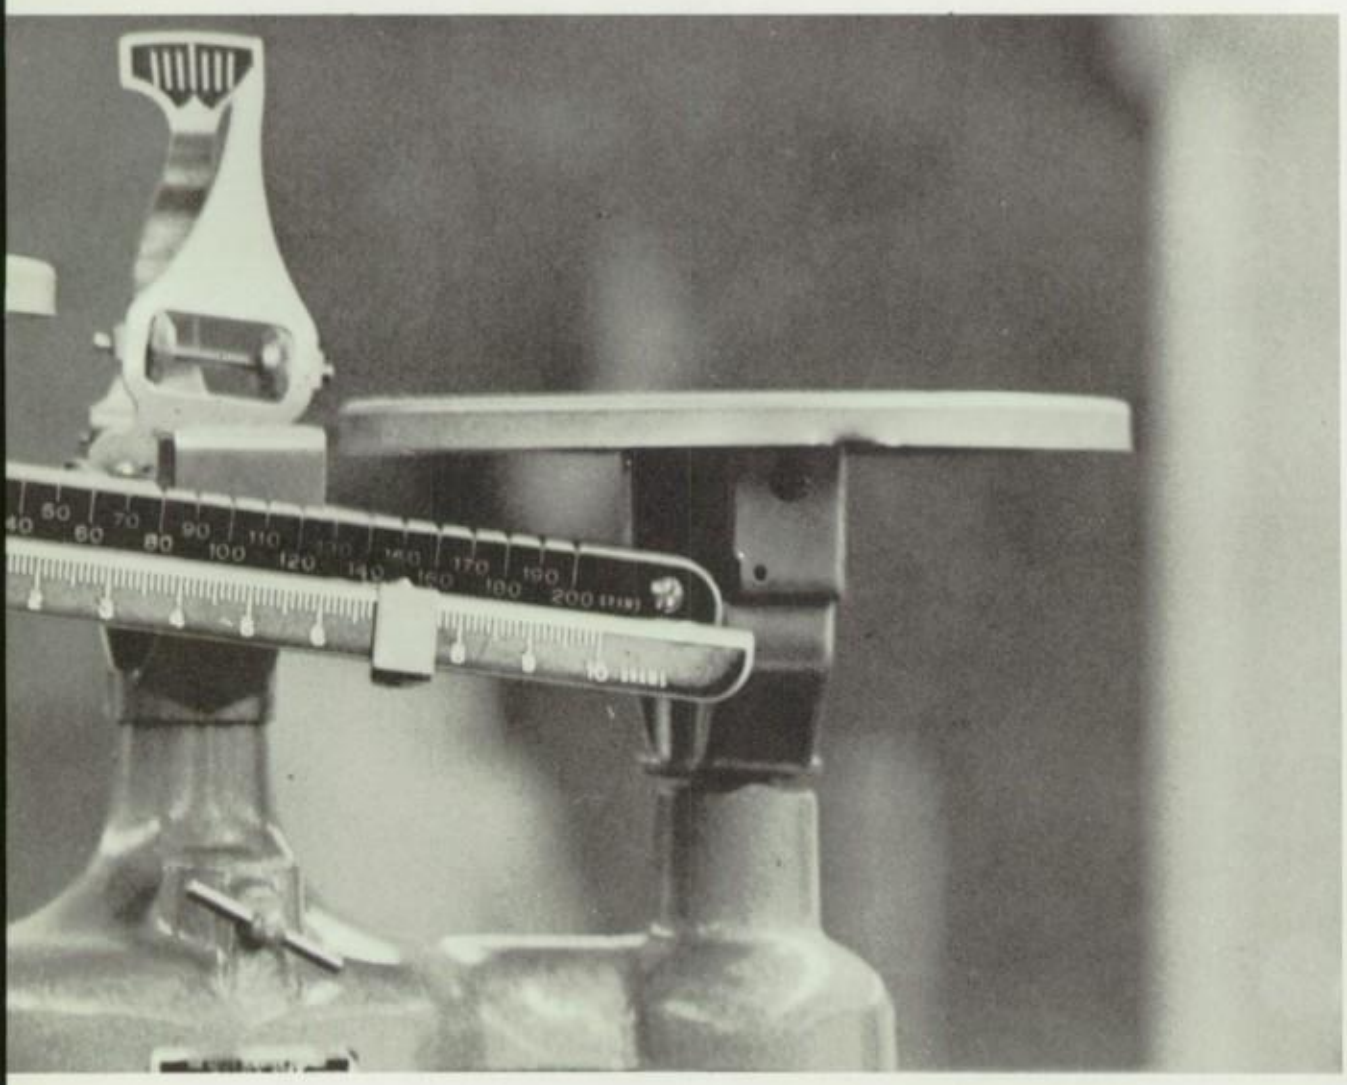
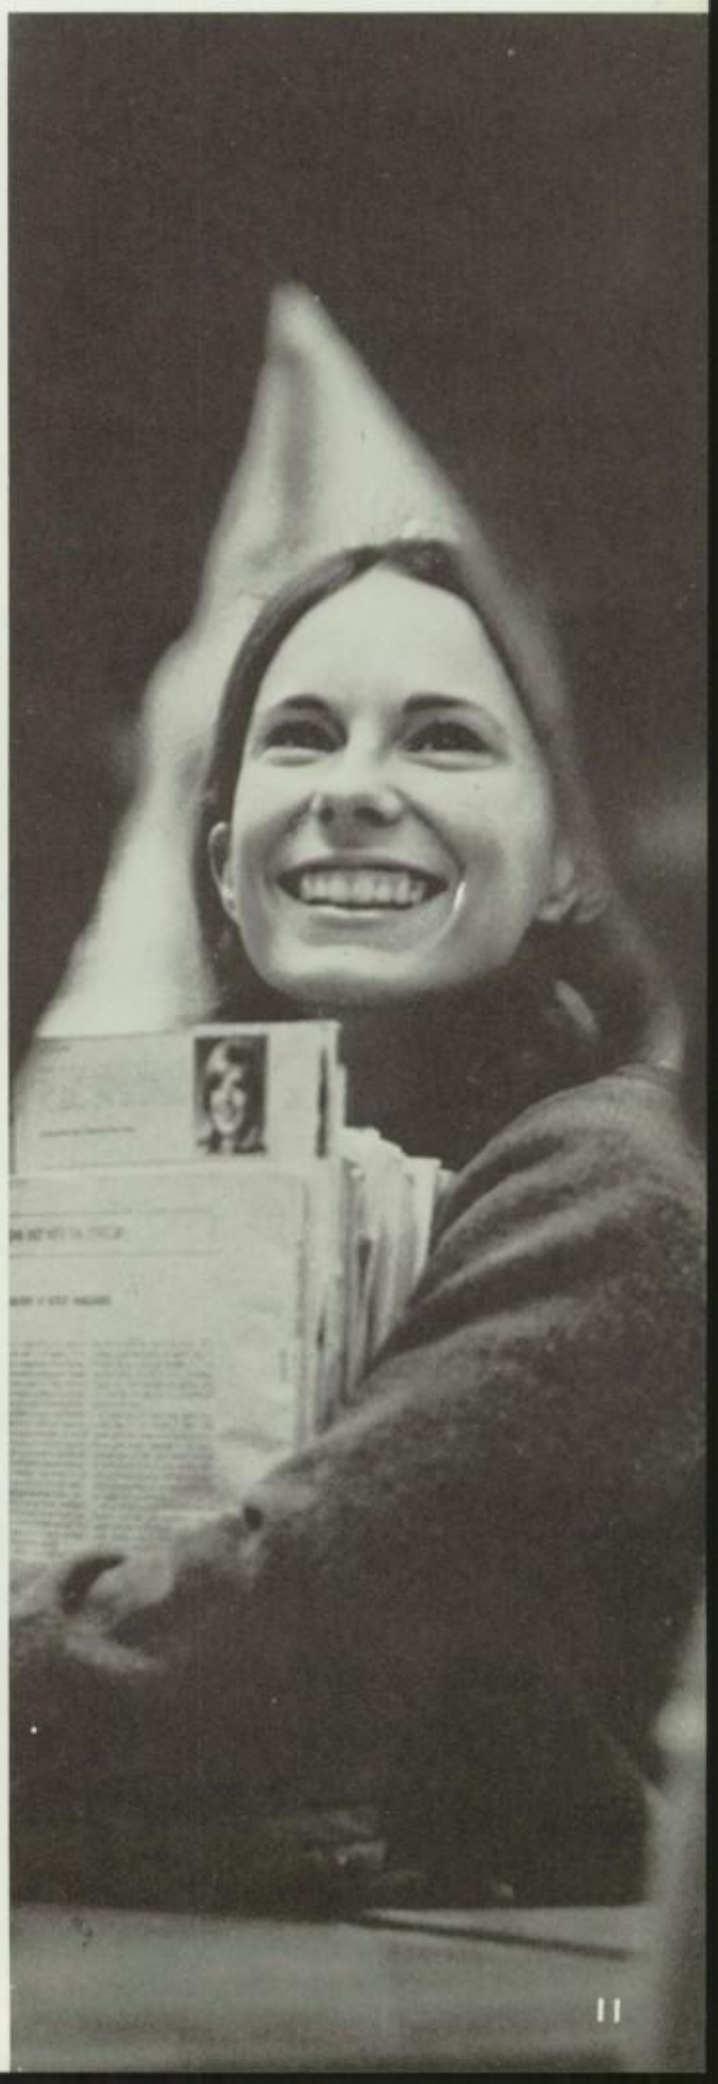
TRAGEDY



Together we went past remembering,
into imagining





Ours was the yesterday of youth and the tomorrow of eternity and when it was done — my dream

my dream and I were not alone.

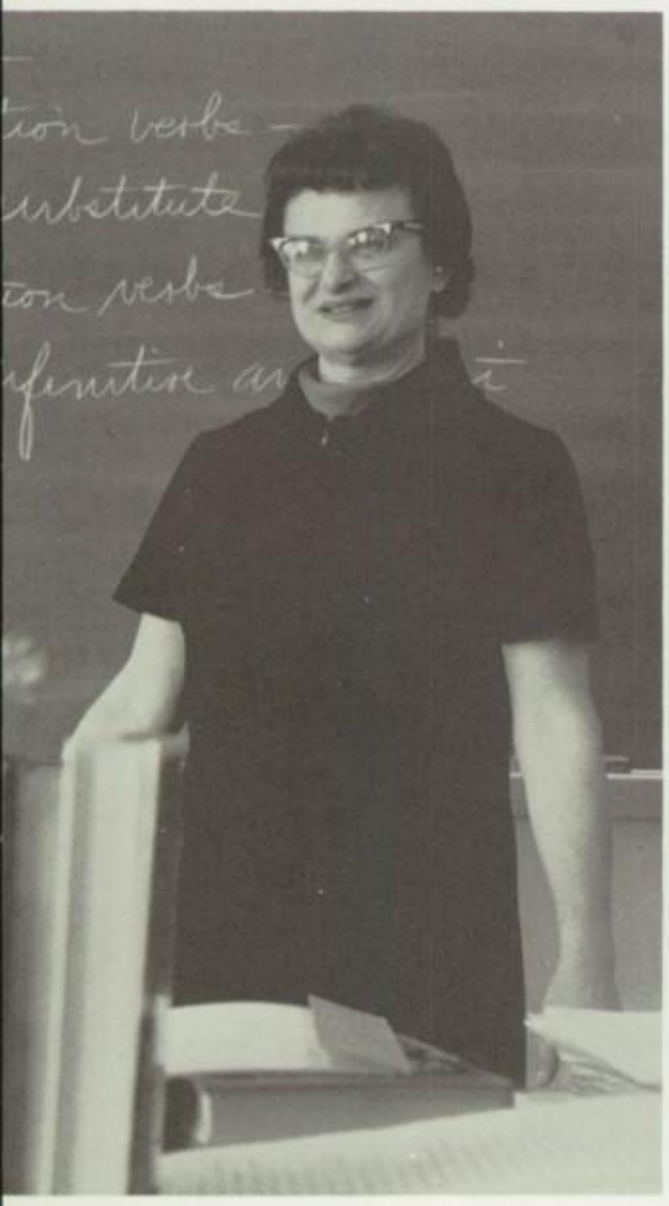
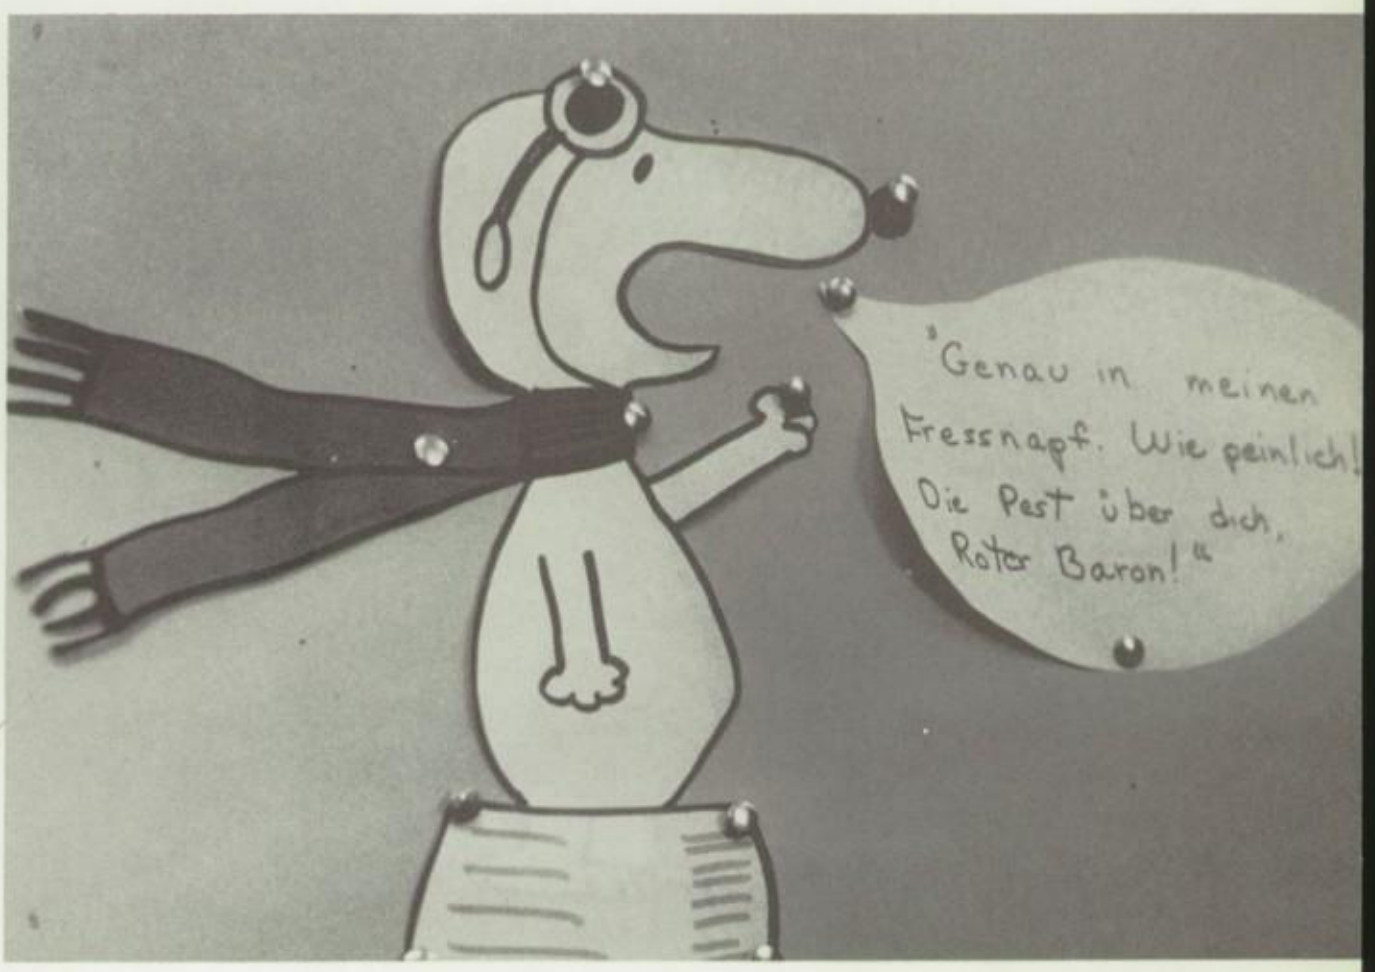
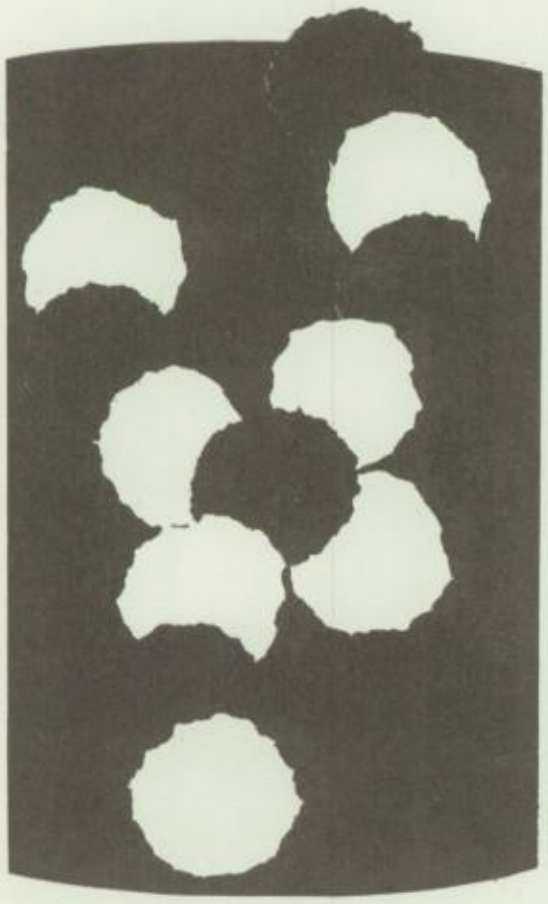
Written and oral exercises in Latin, German, and Spanish form the basis of foreign language study. We are fortunate to have our own language laboratory in which these basic skills may be expanded by hearing native speakers. Recitation also contributes to the learning of these languages.

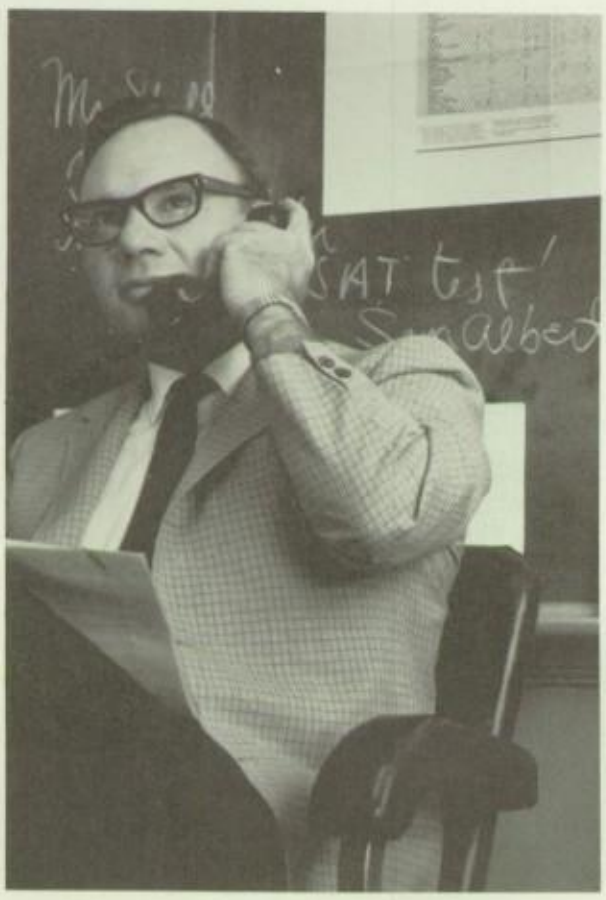


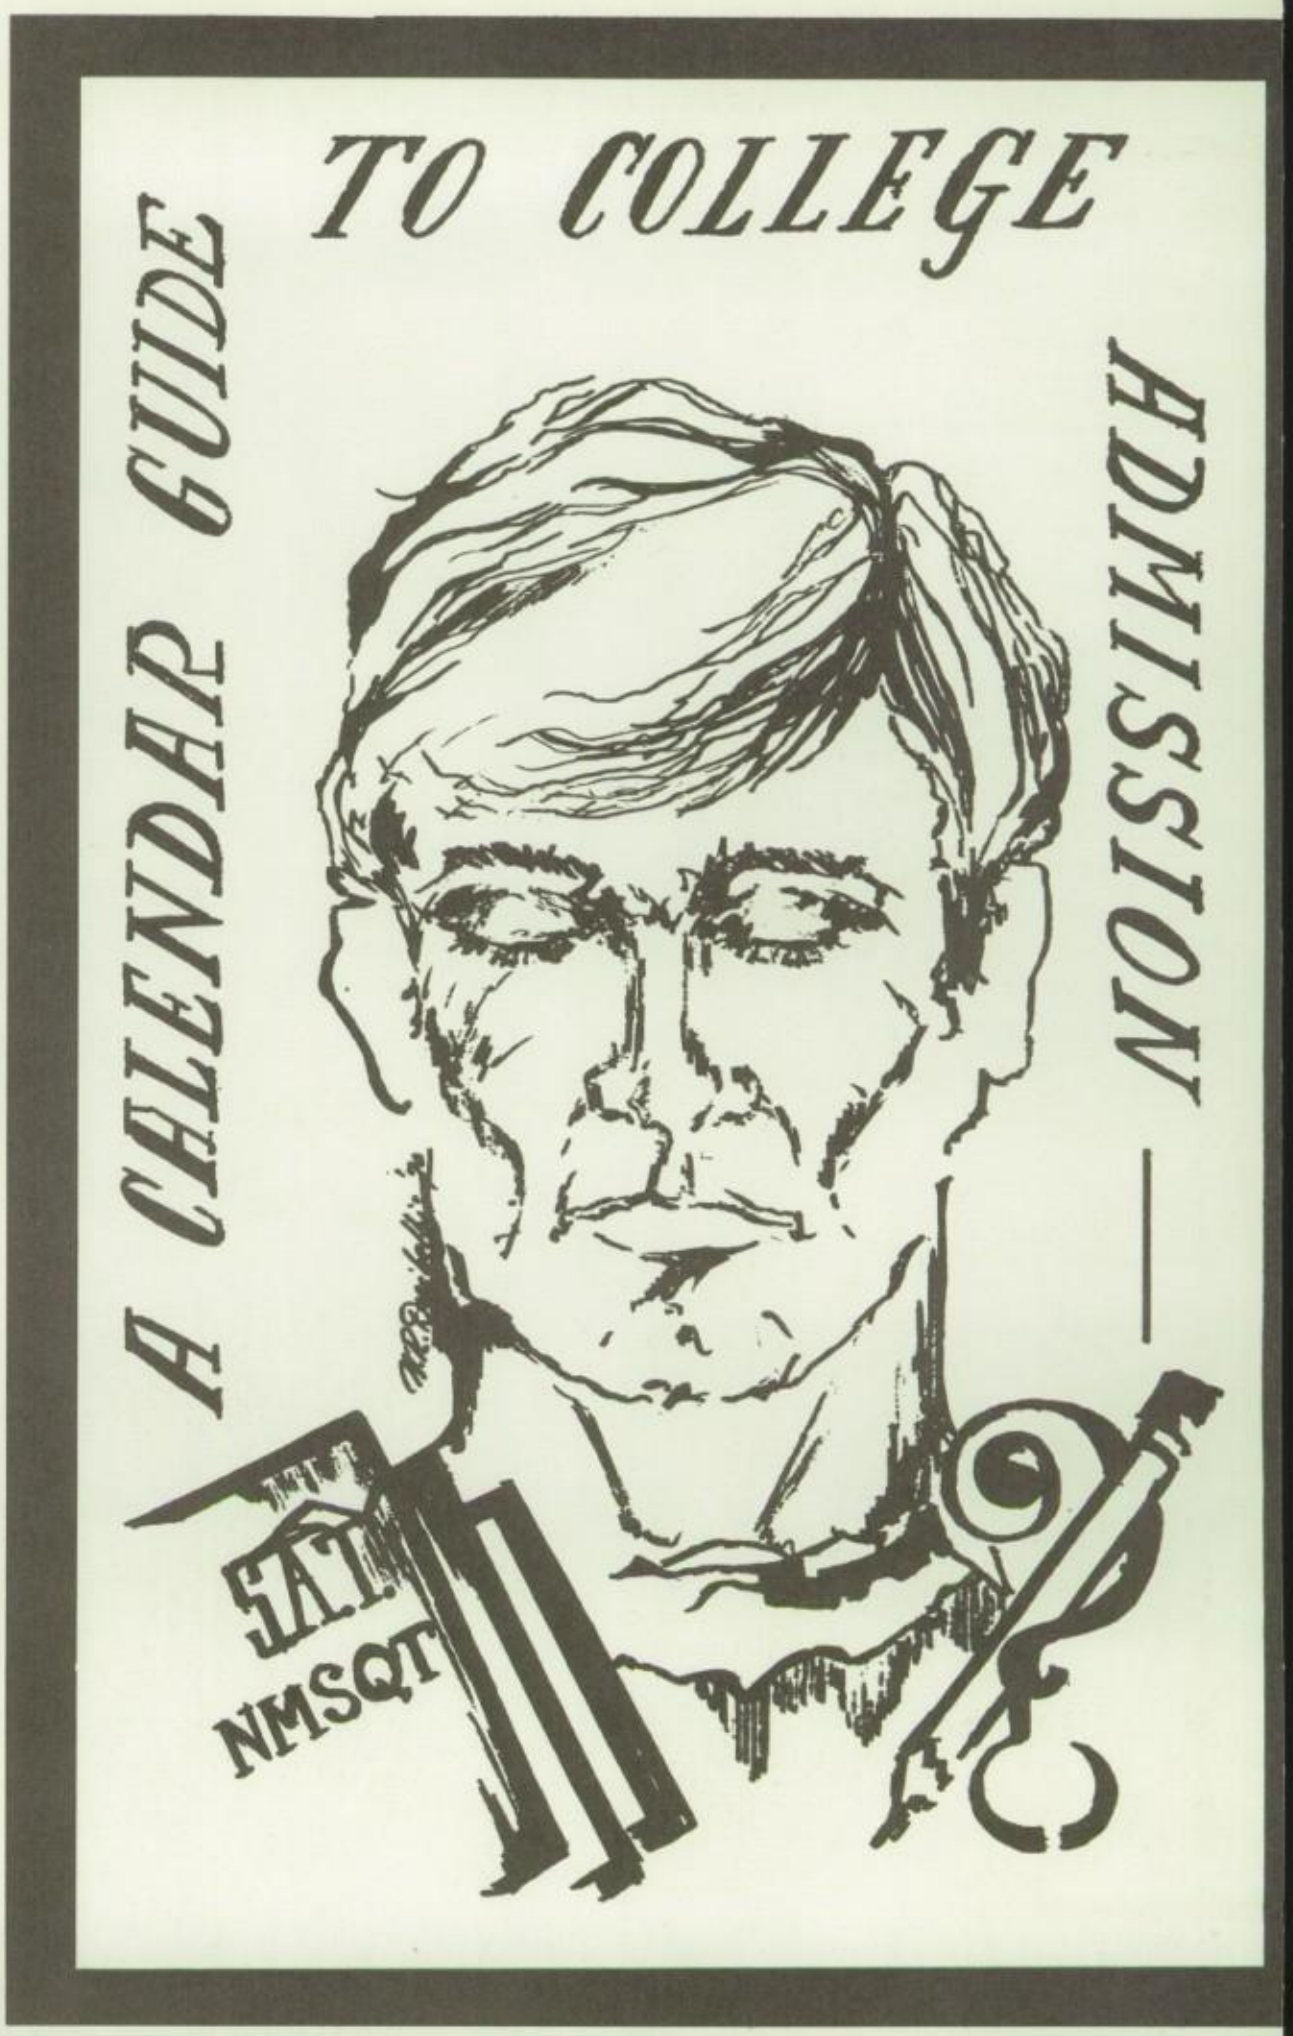


A description of the College Board

Achievement Tests







The role performed by the Guidance Department is extremely vital to the success of our school. Guidance counselors perform many valuable functions. They aid students in choosing courses that are most suitable in fulfilling their individual needs. They also assist in advising students of opportunities available after graduation — both for those who plan to attend college and those who plan to enter vocational employment.

and ends.
Of morning mist and balmy wind. I remember the mist touched my cheeks and the wind steeped my hair in the damp during my long walk to school.
I was groping in the early silence among the other students. Some of them smiled at me. It meant
'hello.'
Thinking was best in the morning before class.
Crowded faces reminded me of some experience or thought and faded from thought to thought,
each ending and beginning with a face . . . .

As the day passed, it was a rare occurrence when some academic or social activity was not asking for my attention.
However, there were times when I could think and form my own opinions.
What is wrong and what is right about life —
especially my life.
When I walked through snow-covered fields,
while I sat in the quiet of the library, even in the middle of a crowd I could feel the peacefulness of solitude.
My three years at Muhlen-berg Township High School gave me time to acquire part of a much needed education;
but it also gave me the individual time to search for a deeper meaning in my life.

Honor (on'êr), n. high esteem; reputation; exalted rank.

TOP TEN

To have earned a place in the Top Ten ranking of the year's graduating class is to have gained one of the highest academic honors Muhlenberg bestows upon its students. June, 1970, finally comes and as his high school career is finished, the Top Ten student knows that he has made his mark, and that it was worth all the effort.

Class rank is not given to a student as a reward or as an incentive. Class rank is earned by the student himself, from his first day in tenth grade to his last day in twelfth. That is why obtaining a place in the Top Ten is such an honor. This year's Top Ten students set a goal as sophomores and followed it through to the end of their senior year.

The Top Ten student possesses not only the eyes to see, the ears to listen, and the brain to learn, but more important, he possesses an appetite for knowledge. Somehow, he always manages to read the last chapter, and study that extra hour, and do the optional report and . . . the list is endless. This is the caliber of a student who qualifies for the Top Ten.

Craig Reider, Robert Bucks, Pamela Gardner, Sandra Moll, David Breedy, Teresa Giorgi, Thomas Good, Kristine Ketner, Joseph Boccagno, and Bruce Strupp are Muhlenberg's 1970 Top Ten.

Senior Play

Presenting an evening of creative dramatics based on the stories "The Plum Tree" and "The Right Kind of House," November twenty-first and twenty-second, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine.

Tension . . . Pressure . . . Pain! The hours of preparation, sacrifice of precious time, and that potent reminder of what "acting" really means all build to the final impact of the senior play.

Enchanting piano theme . . . blue lights . . . Roxy Moyer and Beverly Dell facing the truth with Alline Thomas and Linda Hymes, Kathleen Withers, Janet Shaeffer and Rosemary Carl.

A thunder belt . . . shadows of death . . . Tracey Cote serving lemonade to Craig Nagle, aided by Bruce Seiders, Greg Hess and Fred Starke.

"Then before you know it, before you're ready, it's there."

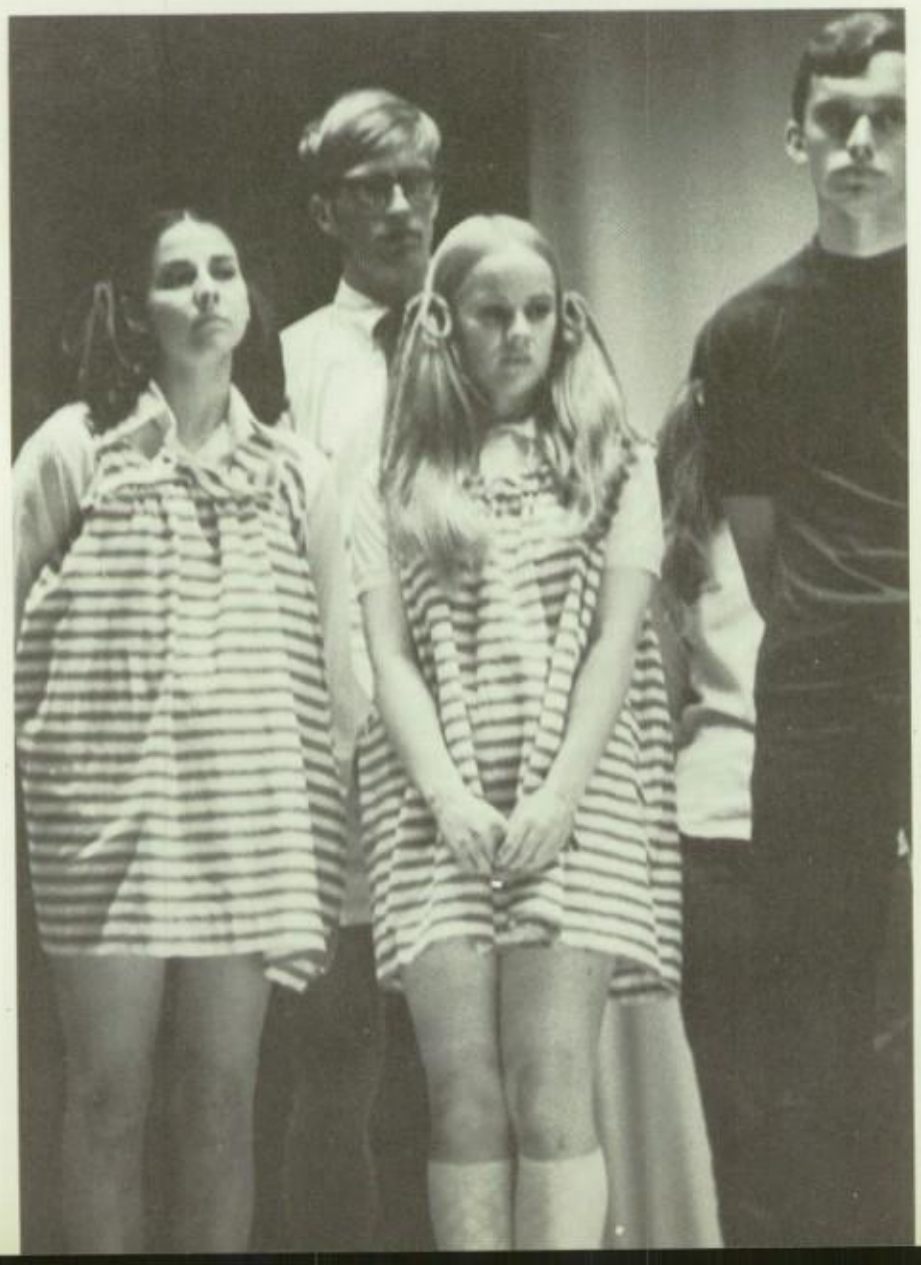
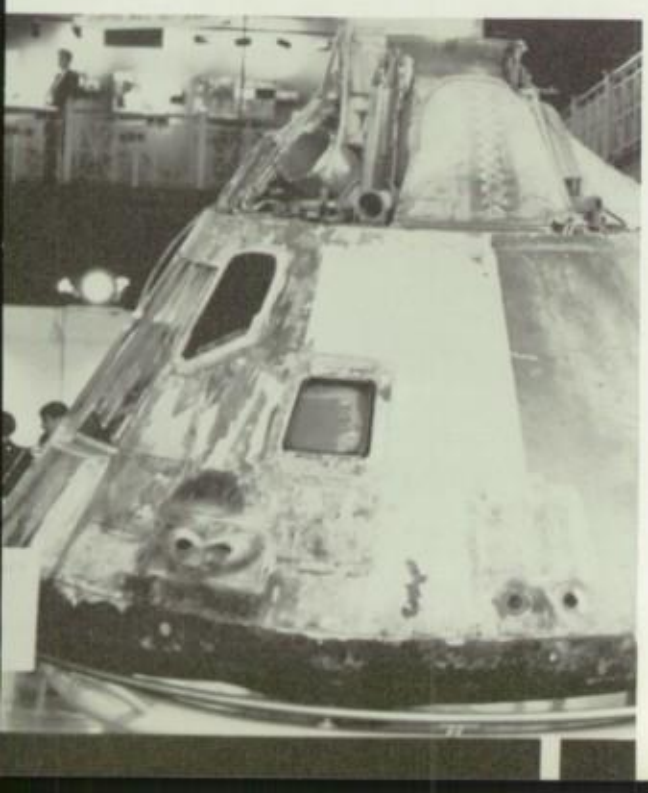
Class Trip and Assembly Finalize Senior Activities



. . . And envision great things as we come to the crossroads.



SENIOR ASSEMBLY

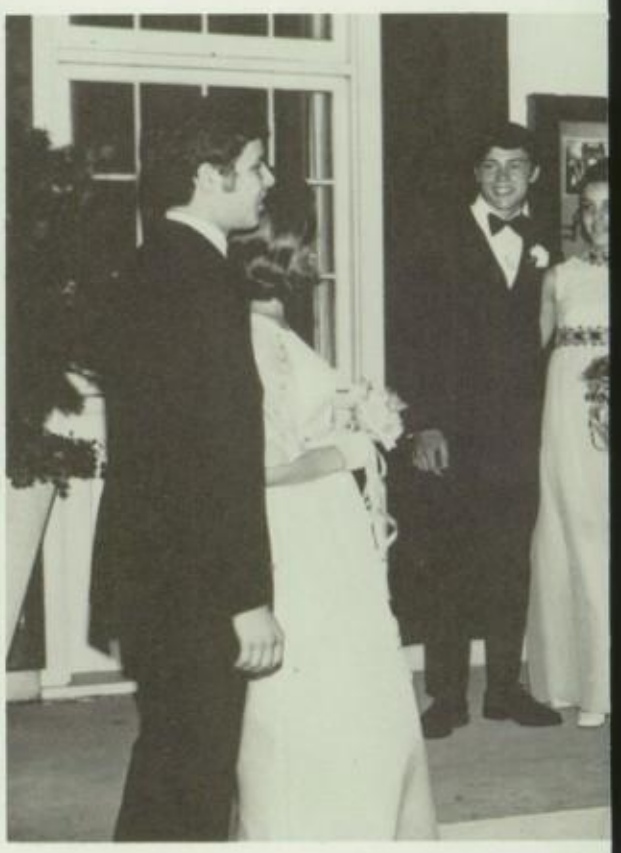
A Last Farewell — May 21, 1970.

All those memories of twelve years recapped in one class period! We'll never forget Joe and Eddie, Muhlenberg's Golden Girl, three Muhl Revues, "our favorite teachers," the cafeteria, Hank's Spoilers, and "Pearl." Everything was hysterical (although this might have been due to lack of sleep?) and we carried the laughter over to the next day . . .

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

The Longest Day — May 22, 1970 Washington, D. C.

Nobody was really awake when we left the parking lot at 5:30 a.m. Friday. Nobody was really awake when we returned Saturday at 2:30 a.m. But in between was — The Maryland House, the Capitol Building, the Lincoln Memorial, Arlington National Cemetery, the Smithsonian Institute, Washington proper, the Washington Monument, the Marriot Motor Inn, and three hours on the Potomac River. All in all it was a wonderful day.

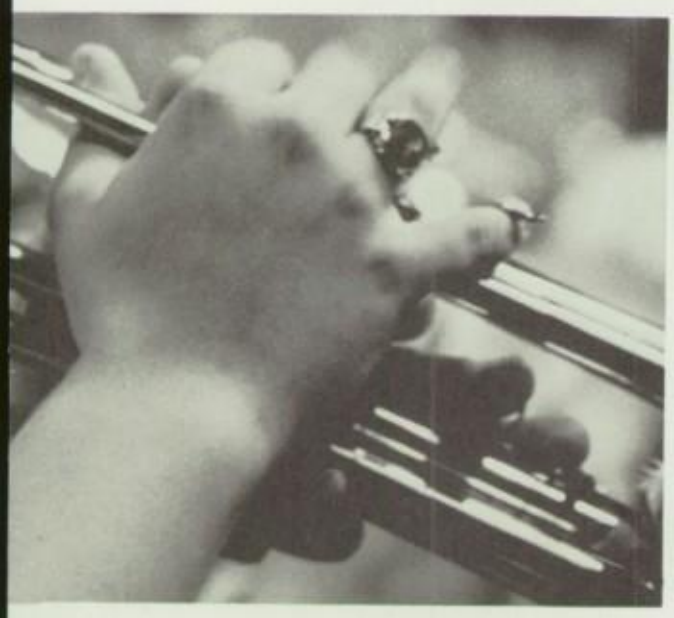


Senior Prom: An Evening in Venice

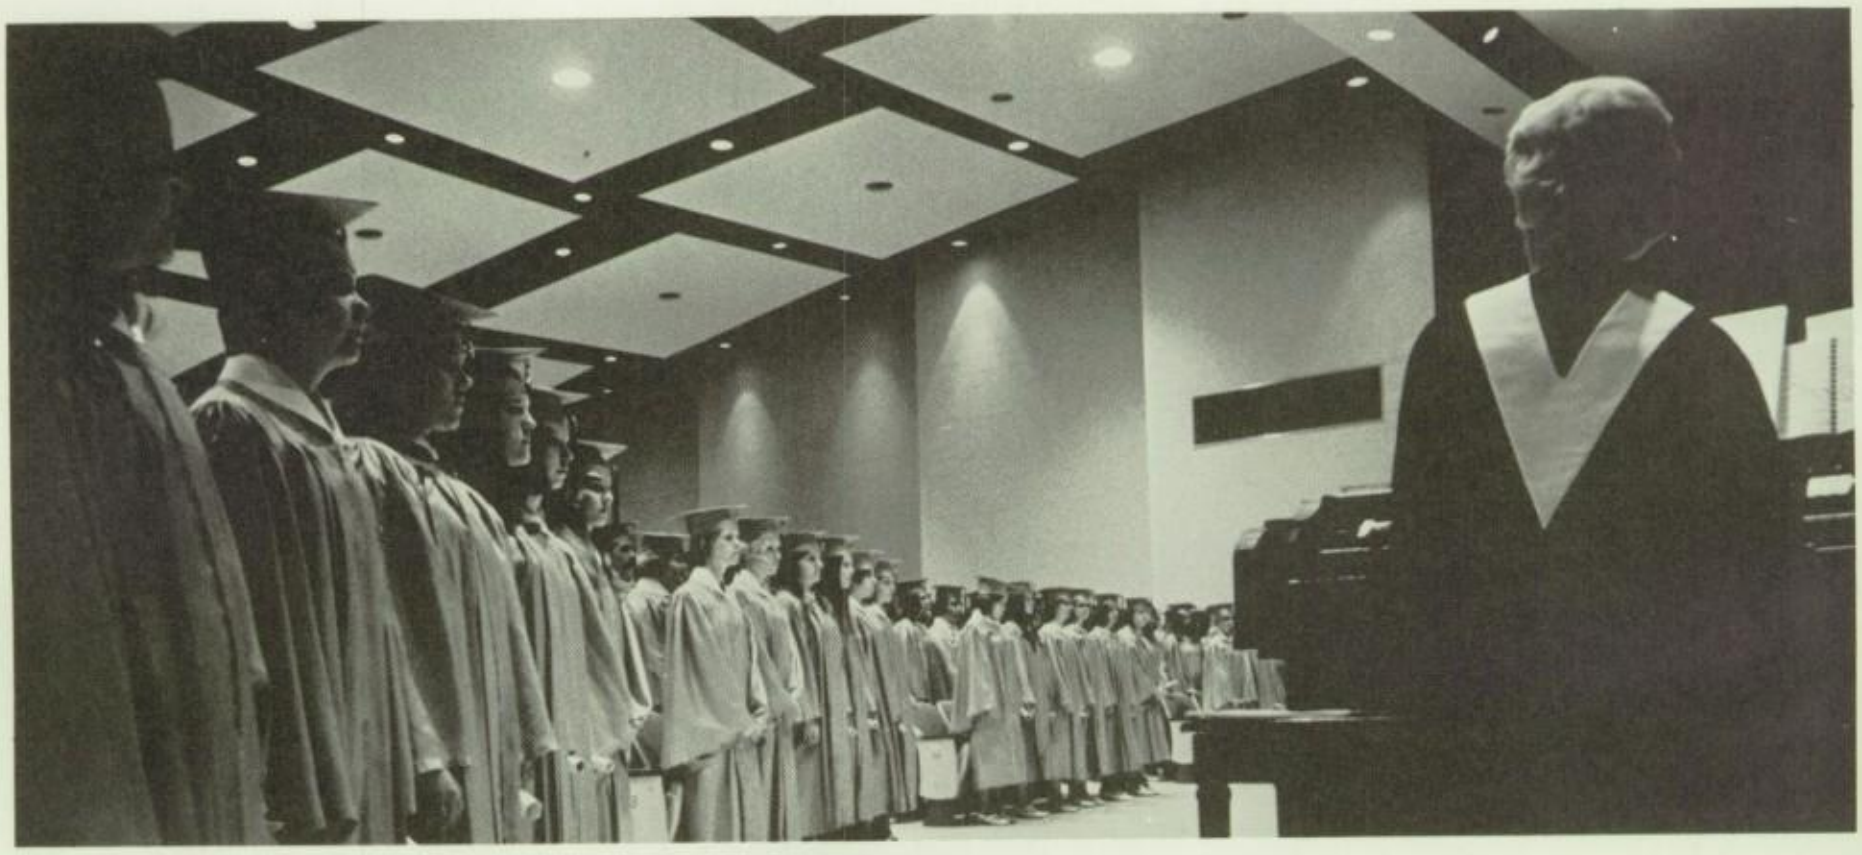
Muhlenberg Senior Dinner and Prom — Friday May 29, 1970

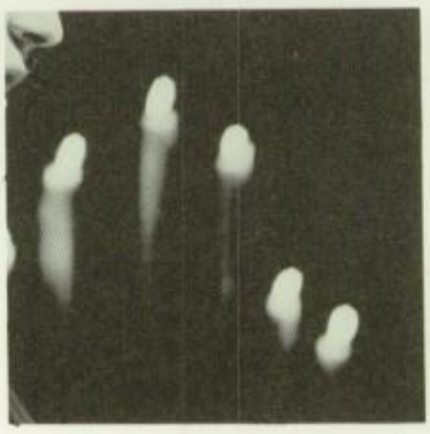
"An Evening in Venice" at the Reading Motor Inn. An innovation this year, a formal dinner before dancing began. Everyone was there, but they all looked so different. The girls were elegant and innocent in their gowns, and the boys looked so handsome, if a little sheepish. Fragrance and candlelight filled the room until it seemed to glow. It made you wonder why dawn came so soon.

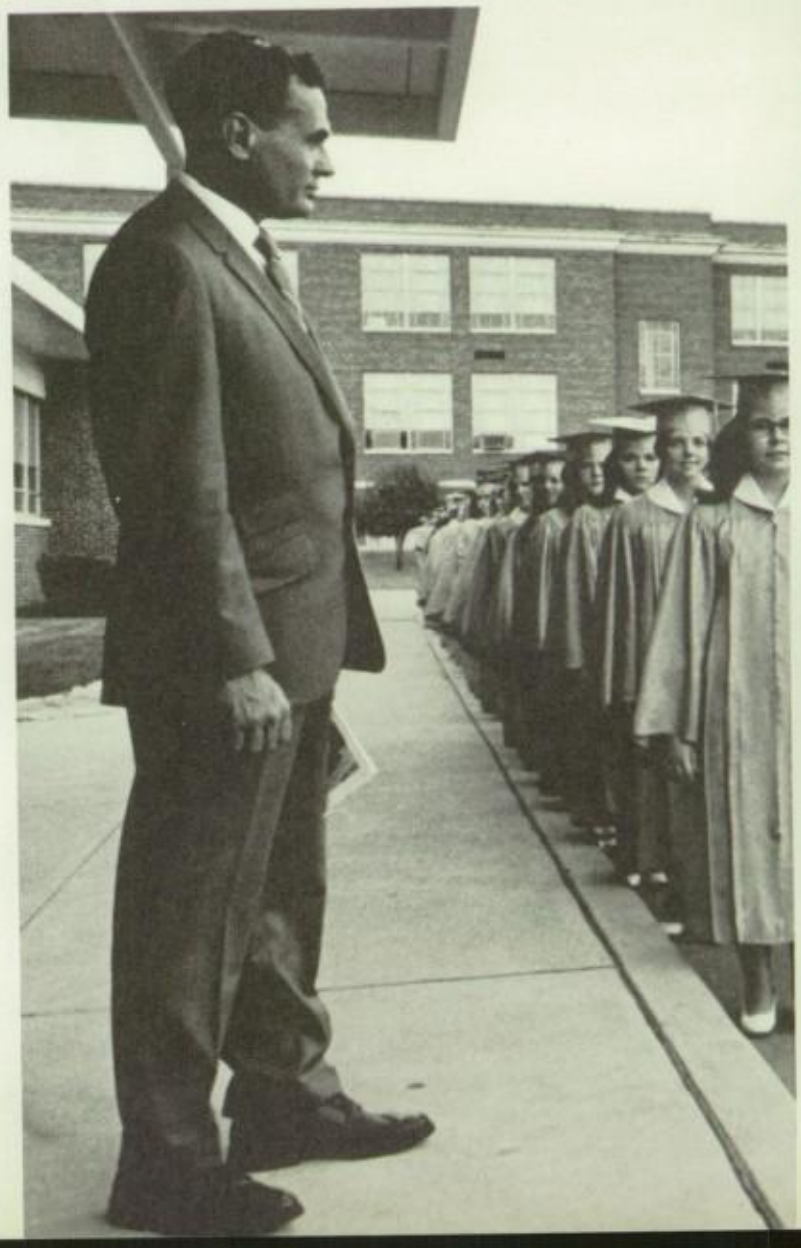
And the Lonely Trumpet Ushers in the Closing Scenes of Tonight's Festivities.

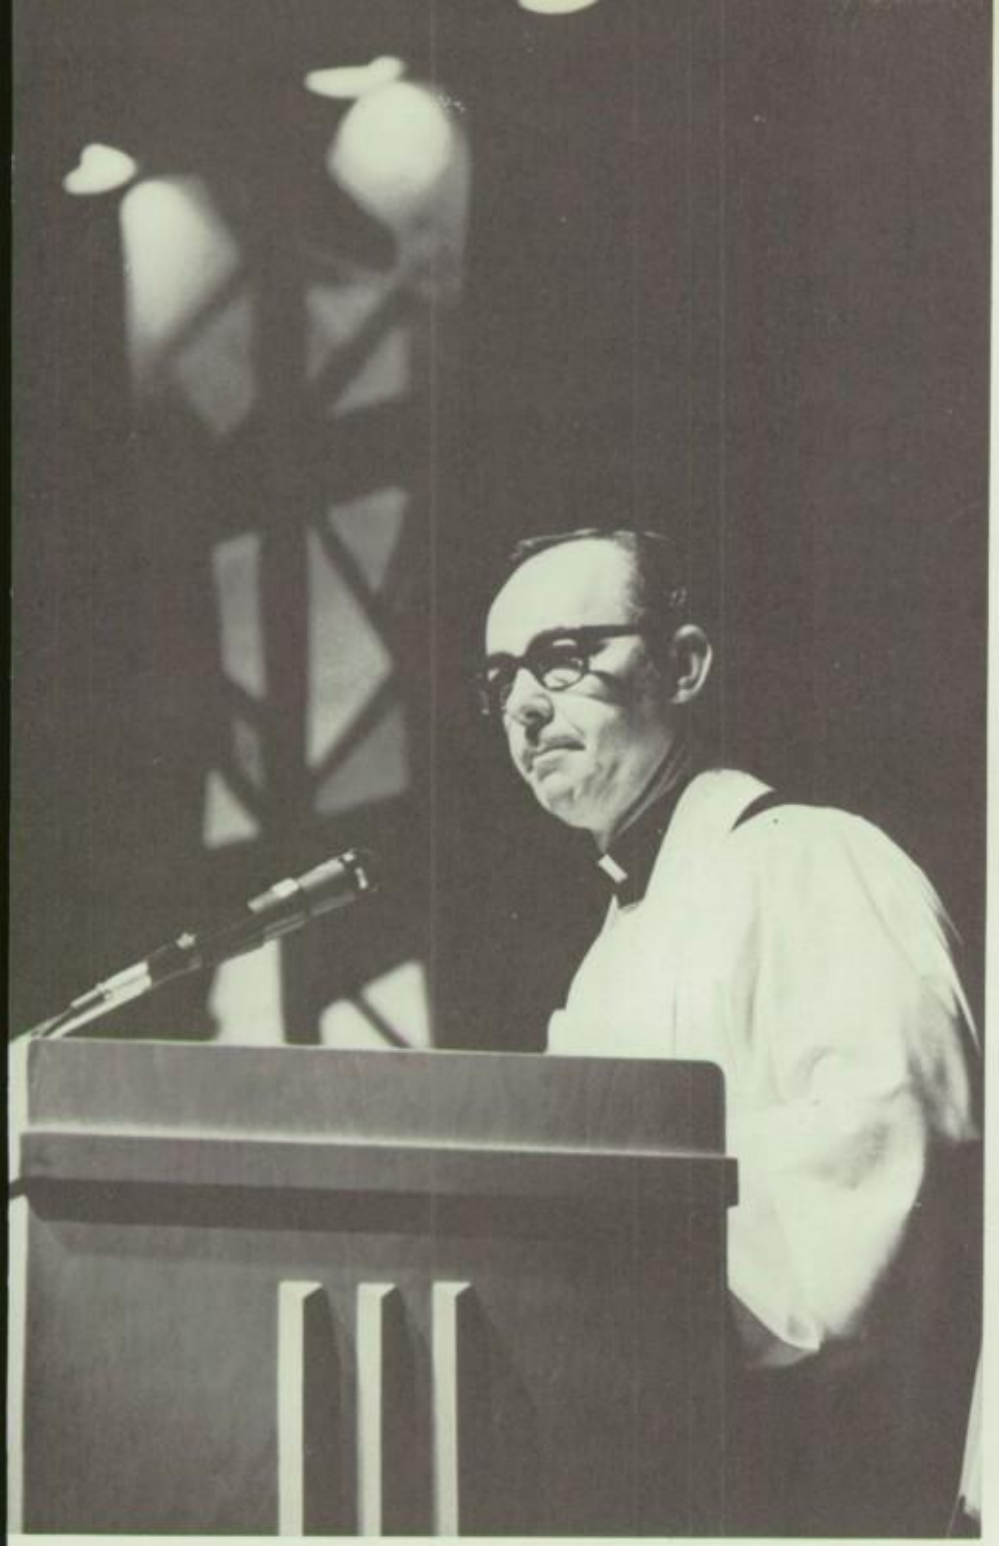


We Will Walk Together My Creator and I





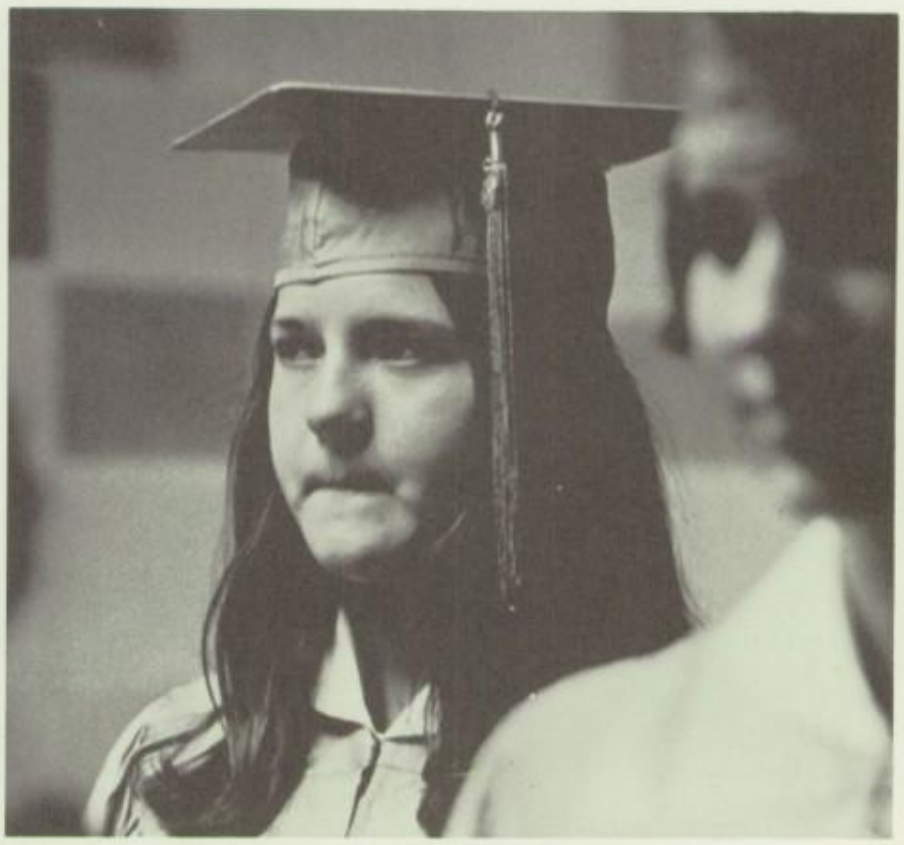




BACCALAUREATE: MAY 31, 1970

The Reverend, Mr. Harting, Pastor of United Church of Christ officiated.

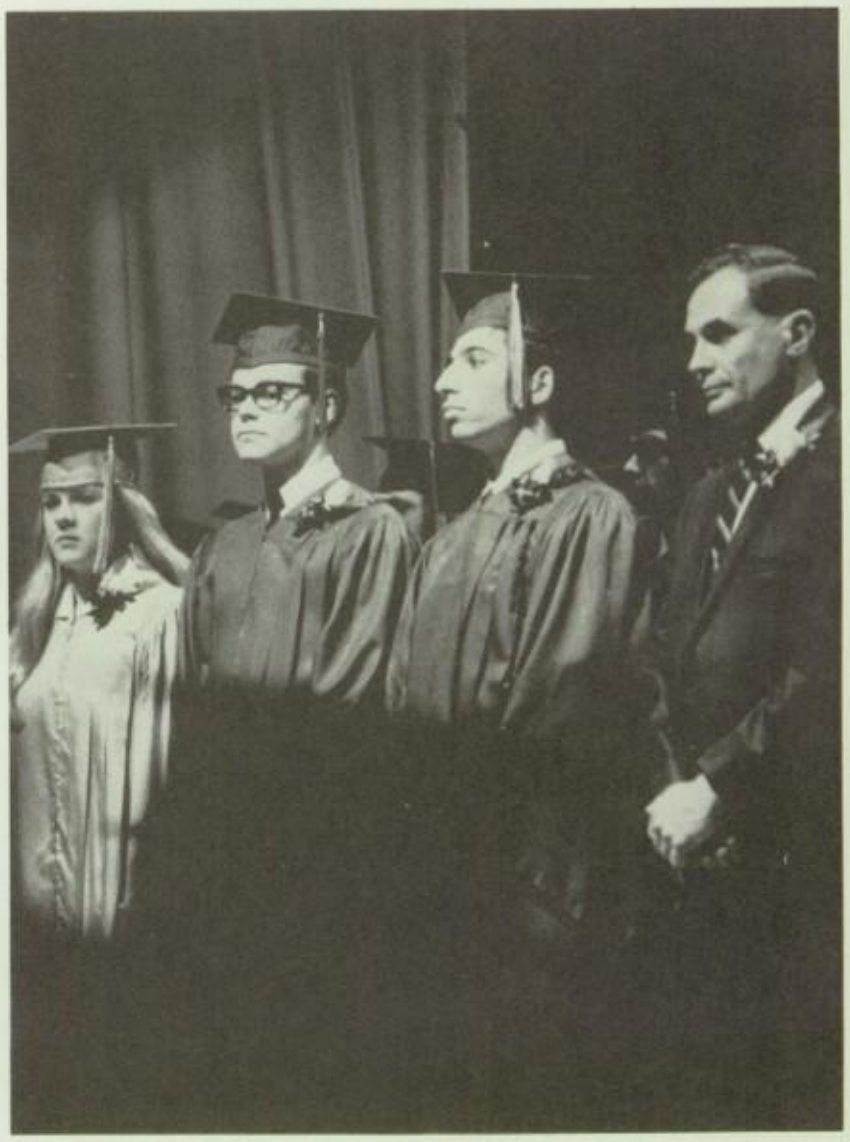
It was a time of solemnity for seniors, as Reverend Harting's words enveloped the silence. You looked around at all those who had come with you through the years, and you had to smile with pride; and as voices swelled during the last hymn, a funny lump got stuck in your throat . . . and then came . . .

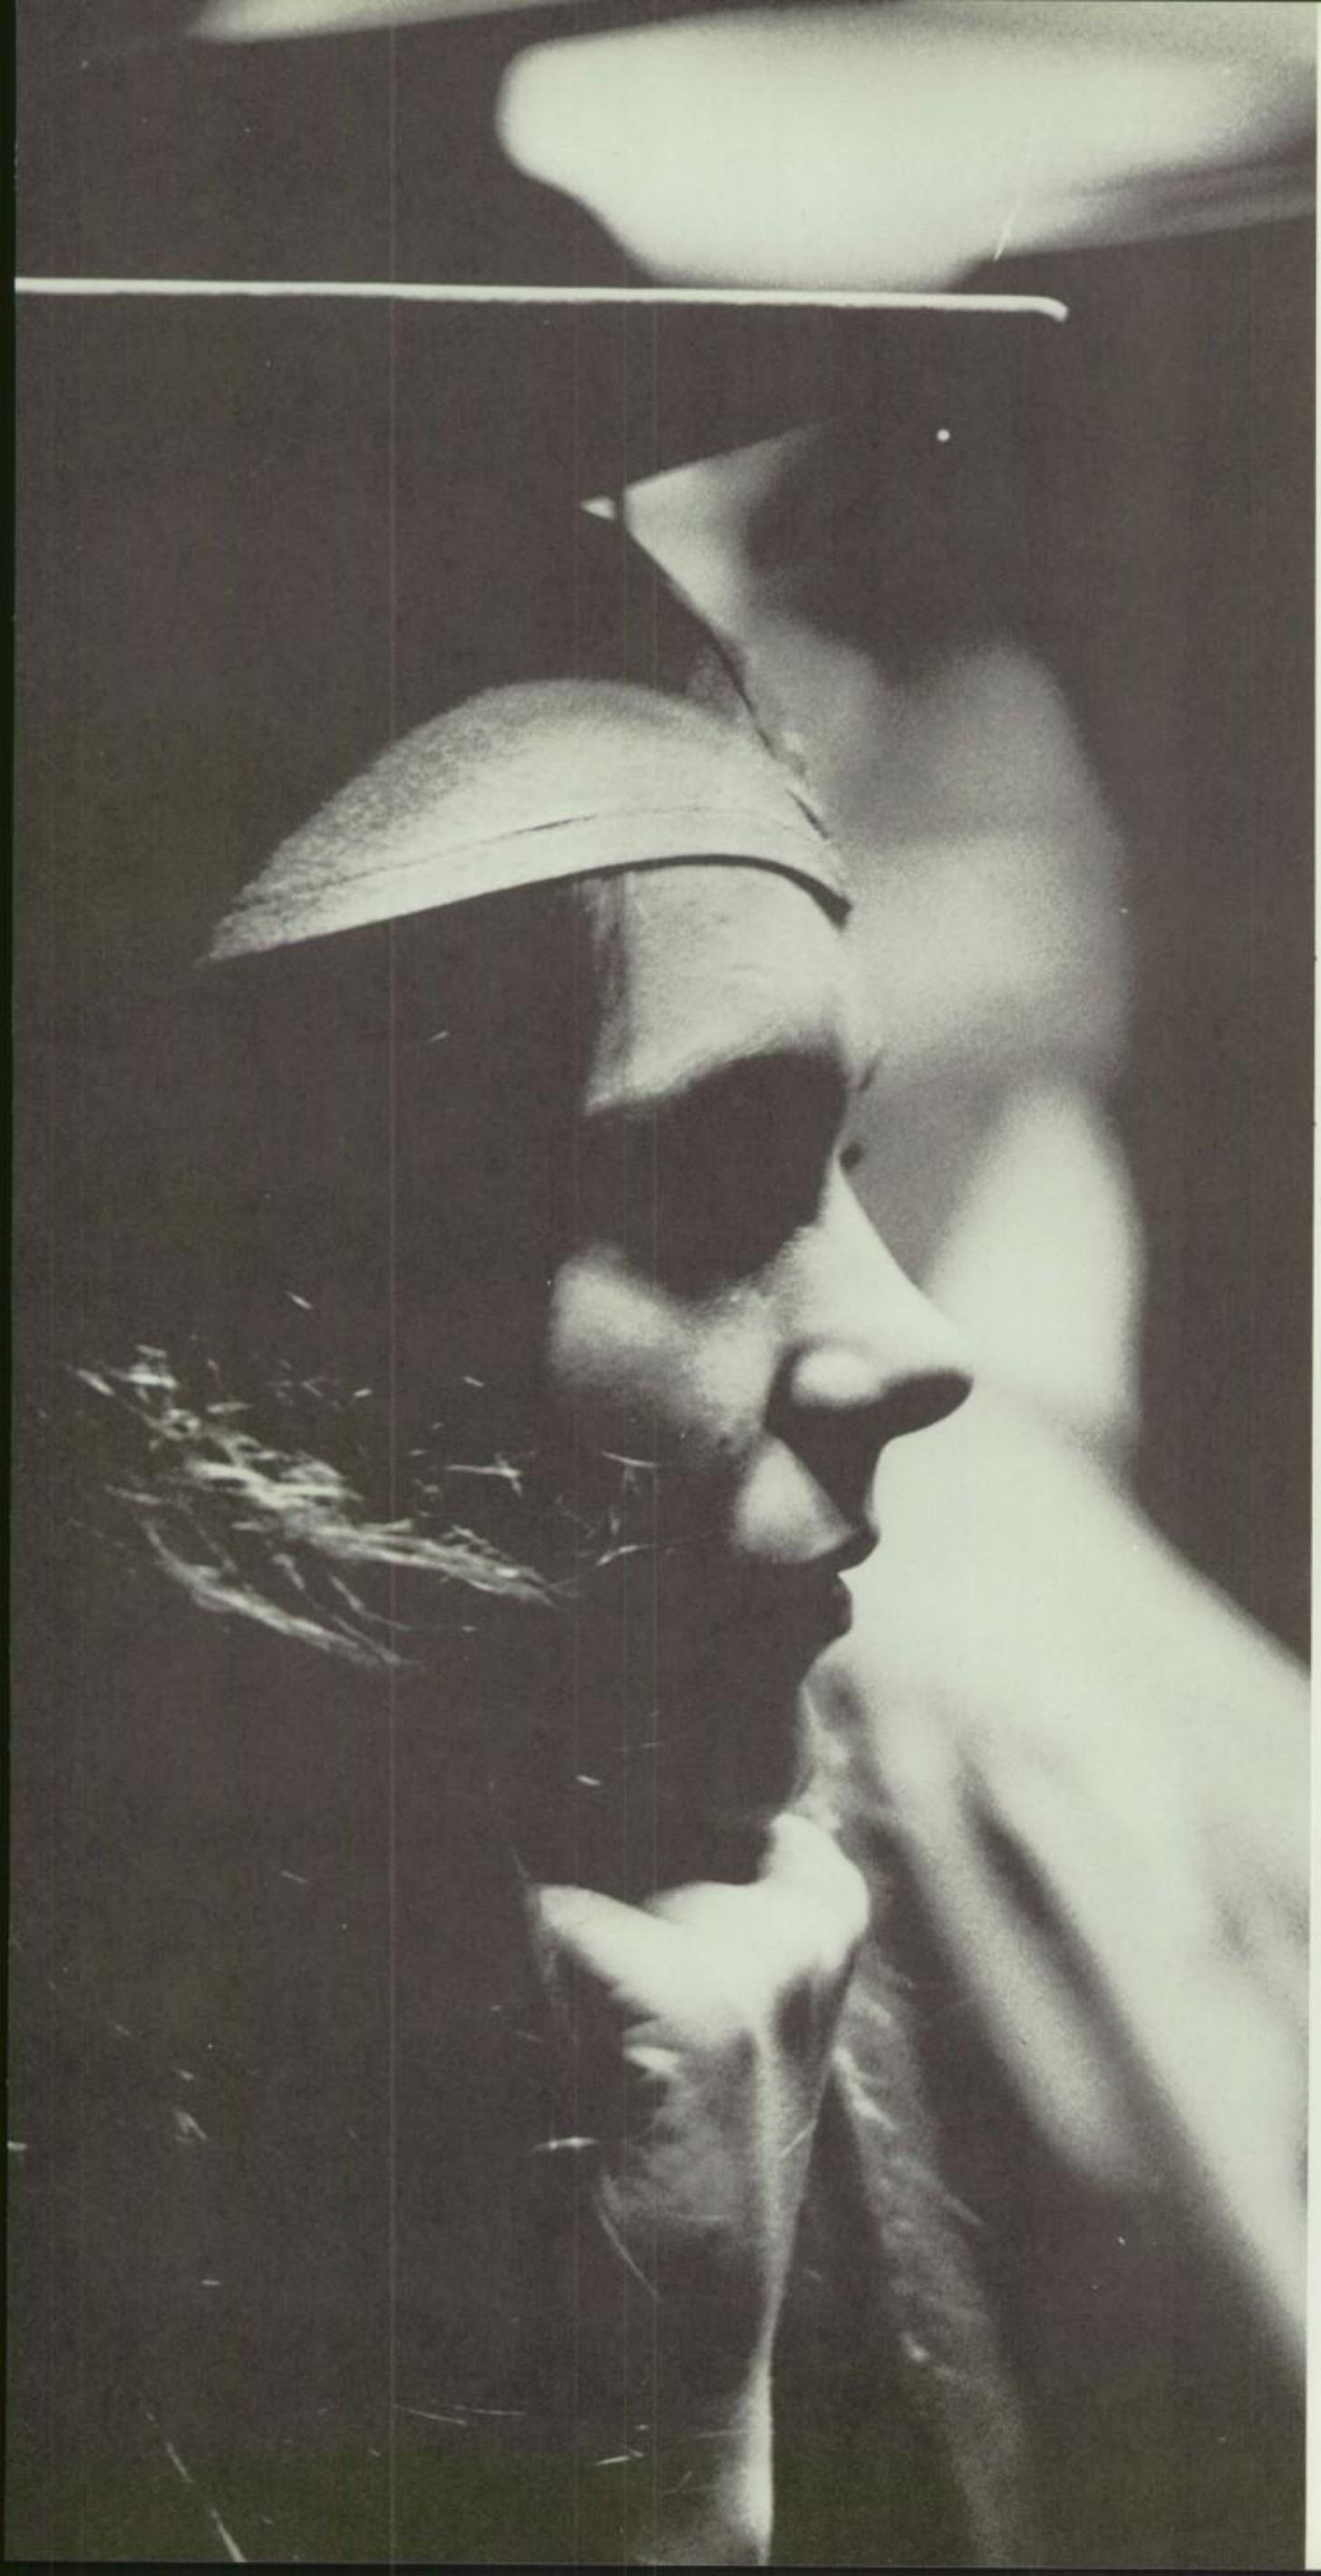


The Door Is Open and the Child Walks Forth

COMMENCEMENT, Muhlenberg
Township High School, June 4, 1970.

The day for which you waited twelve years finally arrived. It's all behind you now, everything you loved and hated about Muhlenberg. There was a feeling of happiness, relief, excitement, and sadness all around you that night and somehow you managed, as did everyone else, to smile through the tears.





Elementary led to Secondary; Secondary to higher learning and employment, and later to families and foreign paths of adventure. And then, there was always 'your dream.'

A Fantasy this will seem, to those who are able to call a beginning an ordinary effort.

WE DO NOT ENTERTAIN NEGATIVE THINKING !!!

Extracurriculars

As in previous years, students were kept aware of activities, personalities, and sports as a result of the school newspaper, the Observer.

Published seven times a year, the Observer was printed this year by the Reading-Muhlenberg Vocational Technical School. Ably advised by Mrs. Nina Strause and edited by Debbie Slonaker, the staff provided an interesting and thought-provoking periodical for the student body.

Suddenly, it all makes sense: you understand why you ran the hazard of publishing a book, since nothing can be more impossible than to compose one that may secure the approval of every reader, the lonely after-school hours identifying pictures and writing copy when only you, your dreams, and the custodians wish it were another time . . .

The running clock from fall to summer when final deadline clothed herself in joy and sadness.

It makes sense because it's you using your capacity of creative spirit that you go to the full extent of accomplishment. The reality that brings with it the joy of a great discovery.

It makes sense because it's you competing against yourself: against yourself and the mountain of personalities, layout paper, photographs, schedules, names and dates. The only victim is your pride, if you fail; the only winner is your ego, if by one compliment, it all comes together.

It makes sense because it's you and everyone else scattered on the pages by the printers' ink; an audience of colorless photography, printed yesterday and recorded in love and friendship.

We, the staff of the MUHLTOHI, present to you an anthology of Muhlenberg, its days and hours of learning and meaningful existence.

Mixed Chorus

This year Muhlenberg students were entertained by the Mixed Chorus at the Christmas Assembly and at the annual Spring Concert. Chorus was hampered this year for two reasons. Practice time was limited as Chorus met during eighth period twice a week and directress, Miss Horton, unfortunately broke her arm and Chorus was without her fine direction.

MUHLAIRES AND MUHLETEERS

While the Mixed Chorus performed in concert, the Muhlaires and Muhleteers sang for social events and churches around the county. The Muhlaires, consisting of 16 girls, and the Muhleteers, consisting of 20 boys, also performed in the Spring Concert and in assemblies. They are directed by Miss Horton.

BLUE BAND

Football games, parades, and assemblies were a few of the many times Muhlenberg students were entertained by the music of the Blue Band, under the direction of Mr. Henry Hoffman. Sparkling half-time shows at Municipal Stadium, pep songs, as well as jazz and show tunes, and patriotic numbers earned the band much well-deserved praise. Band members spent many hours drilling and practicing before school and in the summer months. The annual concert on May 26, culminated a year of success for the Blue Band.

SHOW BAND

A small group of especially talented musicians added much to the enjoyment of assemblies this year. The Show Band, under the direction of Mr. Hoffman, also won many awards at show band competitions throughout Pennsylvania and surrounding states.

Political Science, U.N. Study Modern World

POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

The newly organized Political Science Club became an active organization at Muhlenberg this year. Although 1970 was not a national or state election year, the club managed to find a wide array of things to do. Advised by Mr. Weiherer and Mr. DeLuca, the Political Science Club staged many debates and student-faculty discussions.

Seated, L to R: R. Weiherer, J. Muthard, K. Ammarell, D. Breedy, S. Long, P. Westley, M. Levan, J. Parzanese, L. Beane, D. Reed, J. Shapiro, P. Elliot.

UNITED NATIONS CLUB

The U.N. Club, once they finally scheduled a certain dance, boasted a successful year. Under the direction of Mrs. Brumbach and Mr. Weiherer, the club added a new fund raising project — selling candy — to its annual license plate sale. At the annual Albright Model U.N., Muhlenberg, representing the U.S.A., placed second. The U.N. Club also sent a delegation to the East Coast Model U.N. and the National Model U.N.

Vigorously arguing: Resolved; That Congress should prohibit unilateral military intervention by the U.S. in foreign countries. This year's Debate Team posted an excellent record. With the aid of coaches, Mr. Weiherer and Mr. Manzella, the team was successful the entire season. Cathy Parshall and Steve Swan, team leaders, were supported ably by seniors, juniors, and sophomores.

a. STUDENT COUNCIL

Muhlenberg's student government, Student Council, operated under a new set-up this year. Meetings were held bi-monthly during a scheduled school period, and the Club came under a new advisorship of Mr. Wolfe. President Bryan Salsano and all the elected homeroom representatives tried to make the Council more of an integral part of school life. Passing important resolutions and taking time in homeroom to explain to the students new policies were some of the Council's methods. A Slave Day and a Senior vs / Faculty Basketball Game were some of the Student Council's lighter duties.

b. LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Maintaining peace and tranquility in the library was one of the Library Assistants' duties during this year. Others included stamping books, straightening shelves, checking pass slips, and being all-around helpers to Mrs. Winnings.

c. BUSINESS CLUB

With the ambition to become more proficient in business and secretarial skills, certain Muhlenberg students, mainly those of the commercial course, join the Business Club. Instructed by Mr. McCrae, the Club members increased their skills in typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand, and became more knowledgeable of office routine.

d. SCHOOL PRIDE CLUB

Muhlenberg's newest club, the School Pride Club, got off to a fine start this year. Advised by Mr. Weiherer, the purpose of the club this year was to maintain the fine spirit of Muhlenberg and "to make Muhlenberg students really proud of their school!"

Y-TEENS

Civic and social-minded young women at Muhlenberg, totaling approximately 100, joined the Y-Teens this year to contribute their talents to the Club's many events. President Debbie Bachman and her cabinet did much of the planning with Mrs. Sterner, faculty advisor. The annual Homecoming Dance kicked off the year for Y-Teens, the Fashion Show highlighted it, and the New York Trip brought to a close another rewarding year for Senior Muhlenberg Y-Teens.

Y-Teens, Cathy Parshall, "The Muhl," added spirit to all home football games.

Students unanimously selected Hi-Y's, Frank Vecchio, to be Muhlenberg's, "Ugly Man on Campus."

HI-Y

Selling candy to finance a trip to the Spectrum and co-sponsoring the Muhl Revue were but two of Hi-Y's many fun and worthwhile projects this year. Advised by Mr. Stickles, President Mike Leisey and all the Hi-Y members did much to boost spirit at Muhlenberg, both athletically and academically.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To acknowledge the contributions of outstanding seniors, Muhlenberg faculty members selected forty-four of them to comprise this year's National Honor Society. Inducted in January, these students represent Muhlenberg in their Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Under the direction of Mrs. Bodolosky and President Dan Yocom, the Honor Society holds a parents' dinner and undertakes the publishing of the Muhlenberg handbook.

G.A.A.

Bouncing back from their advisor vaccuum of last year, G.A.A. became an active club at Muhlenberg again this year. Advised by Mrs. Hill and presided over by Karen Rhorbach, G.A.A. helped to promote all Muhlenberg athletic events, especially those in which girls were directly involved. Pizza parties in the gym, camping trips and shore excursions were a few of G.A.A.'s activities this year.

STAGE CREW

Hoisting props, experimenting with theatrical lighting and toying with sound effects monopolized most of the men of the stage crew, who merited recognition this year for all the moral support which they extended to performers. Under the direction of Mr. Marth, the Stage Crew assisted at class plays, assemblies, the Muhl Revue, and all Muhlenberg stage productions.

After many hours of drills during the summer months, these eight senior girls, led by their captain, Alline Thomas, were a fine asset to the Muhlenberg Band.

MAJORETTES

This year could easily be called one of the greatest for Muhlenberg Majorettes. The hard work, long hours, and early morning practices reaped many rewards for the girls this year. Instructed by Mrs. Hill and Field Marshall Vicki Cronrath, the Majorettes not only displayed their talents at half-time shows, but also at the annual Majorette Assembly and at a Muhlenberg first — "The Majorette Revue."

Cheerleaders Handle Paradoxical Students

CHEERLEADERS

With lots of smiles and lots of pep, the cheerleaders helped to maintain the school spirit for which Muhlenberg is famous. At pep rallies and bonfires, and both winning and losing games, Yell Queen, Judy Beadle, and the entire Varsity and J.V. squads worked hard to inject their enthusiasm into the crowd, and of course, the Muhl helped too!

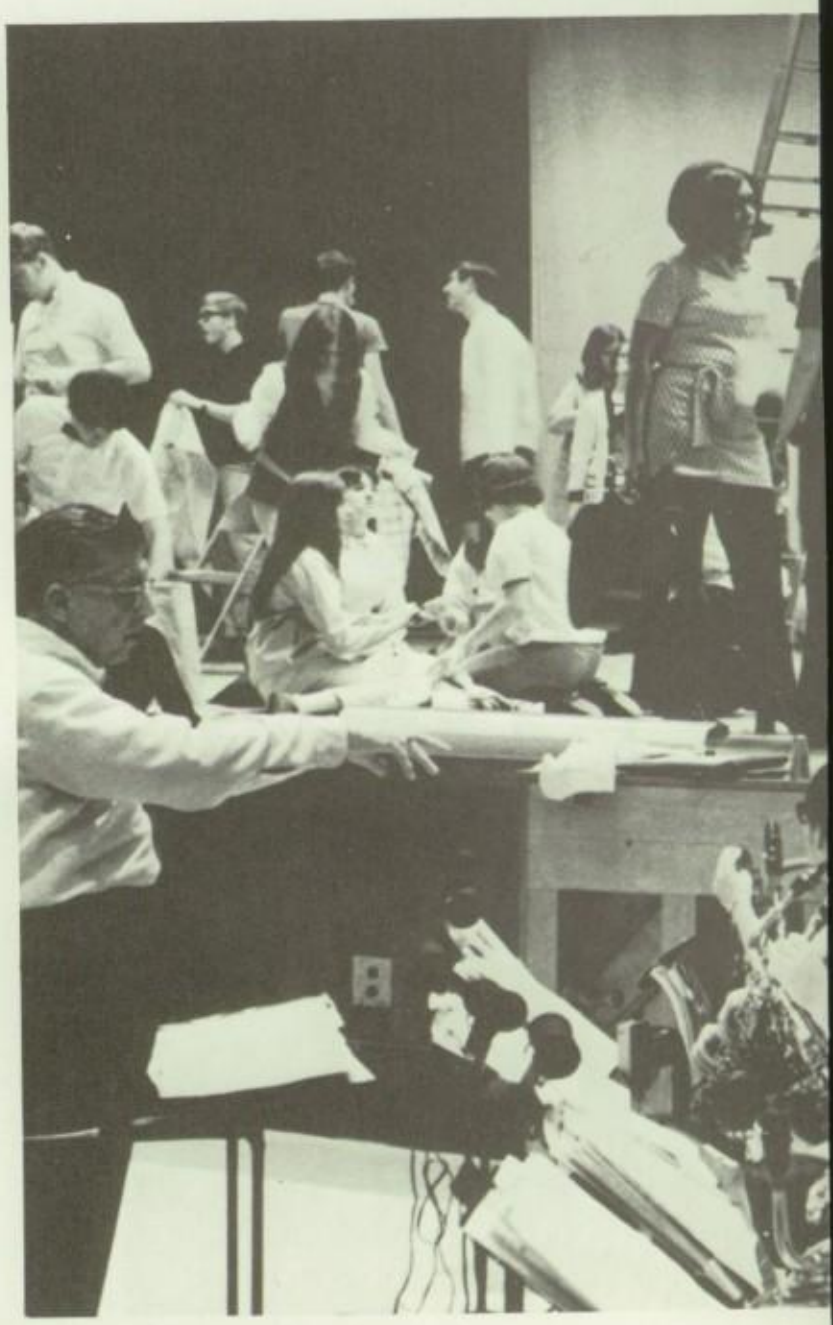
Muhl Revue: A Multi-Ring Circus for Everyone

MUHL REVUE

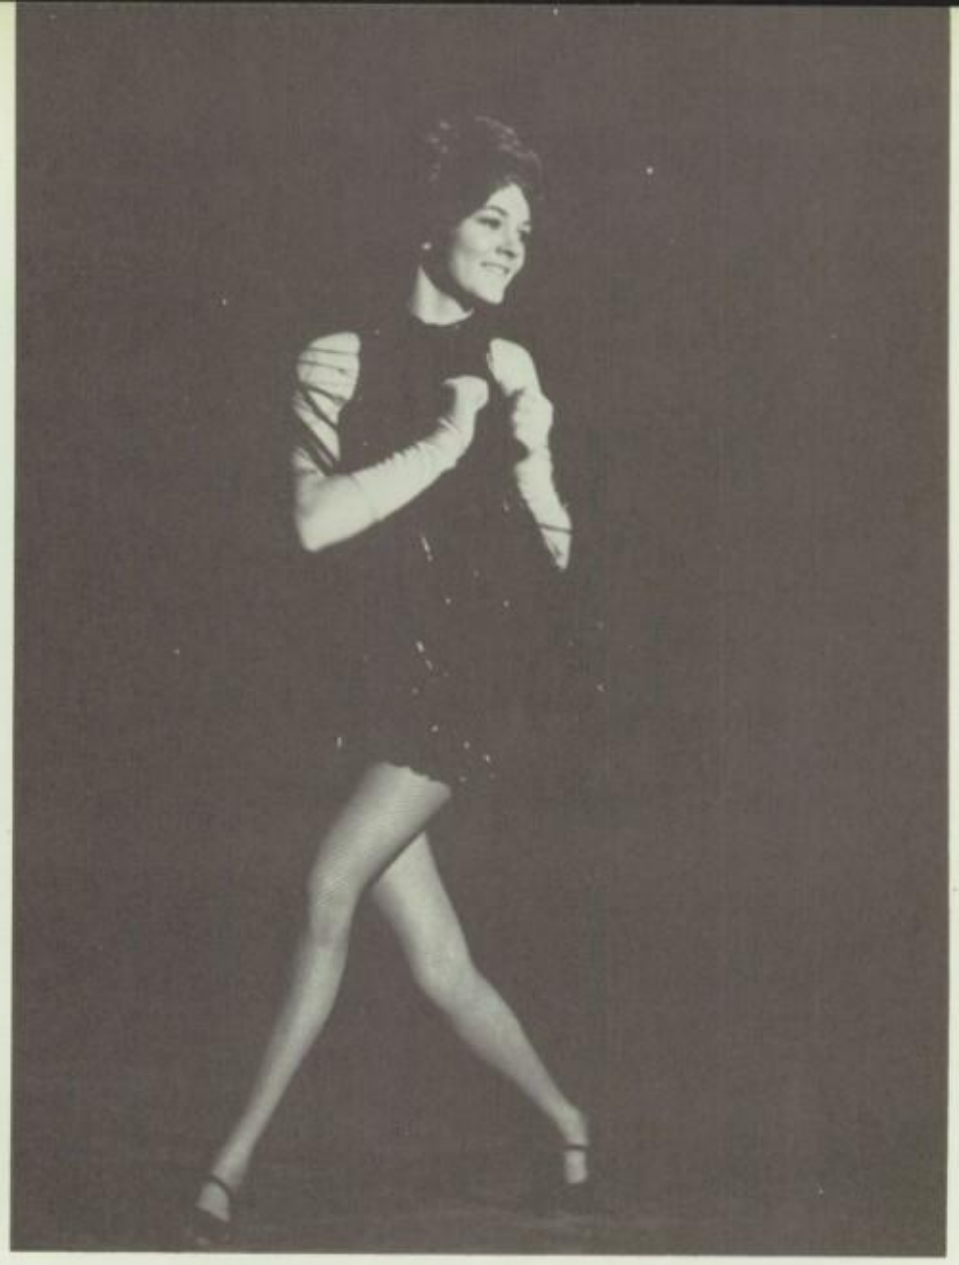
"Muhl Revue 1970" was a night of kick lines, excitement, walk-ons, nervousness, Tonto, laughter, MacArthur Park, hushed silence, and SUCCESS.

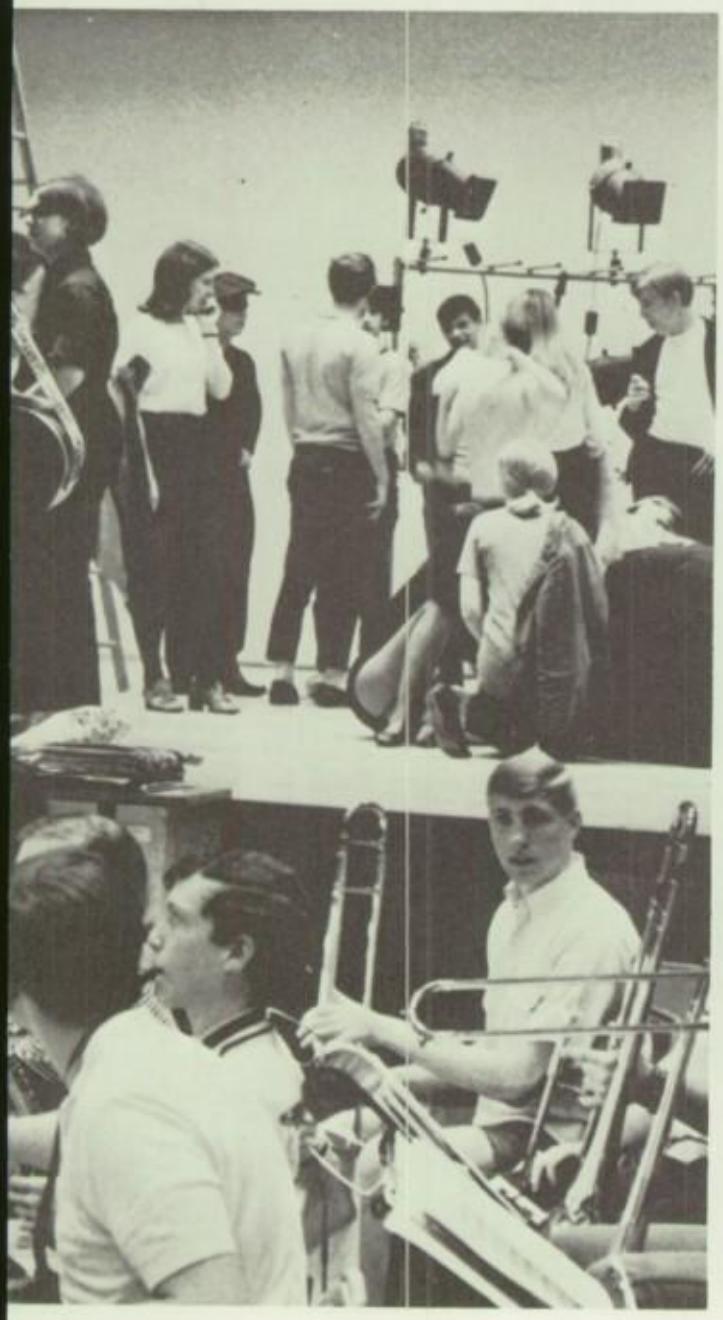
The 23rd edition of the Muhl Revue, directed by Barry Enzman and Davis Salks, and choreographed by Darlene Palmer and Debbie Quinter, drew two of the largest crowds Muhlenberg has ever experienced.

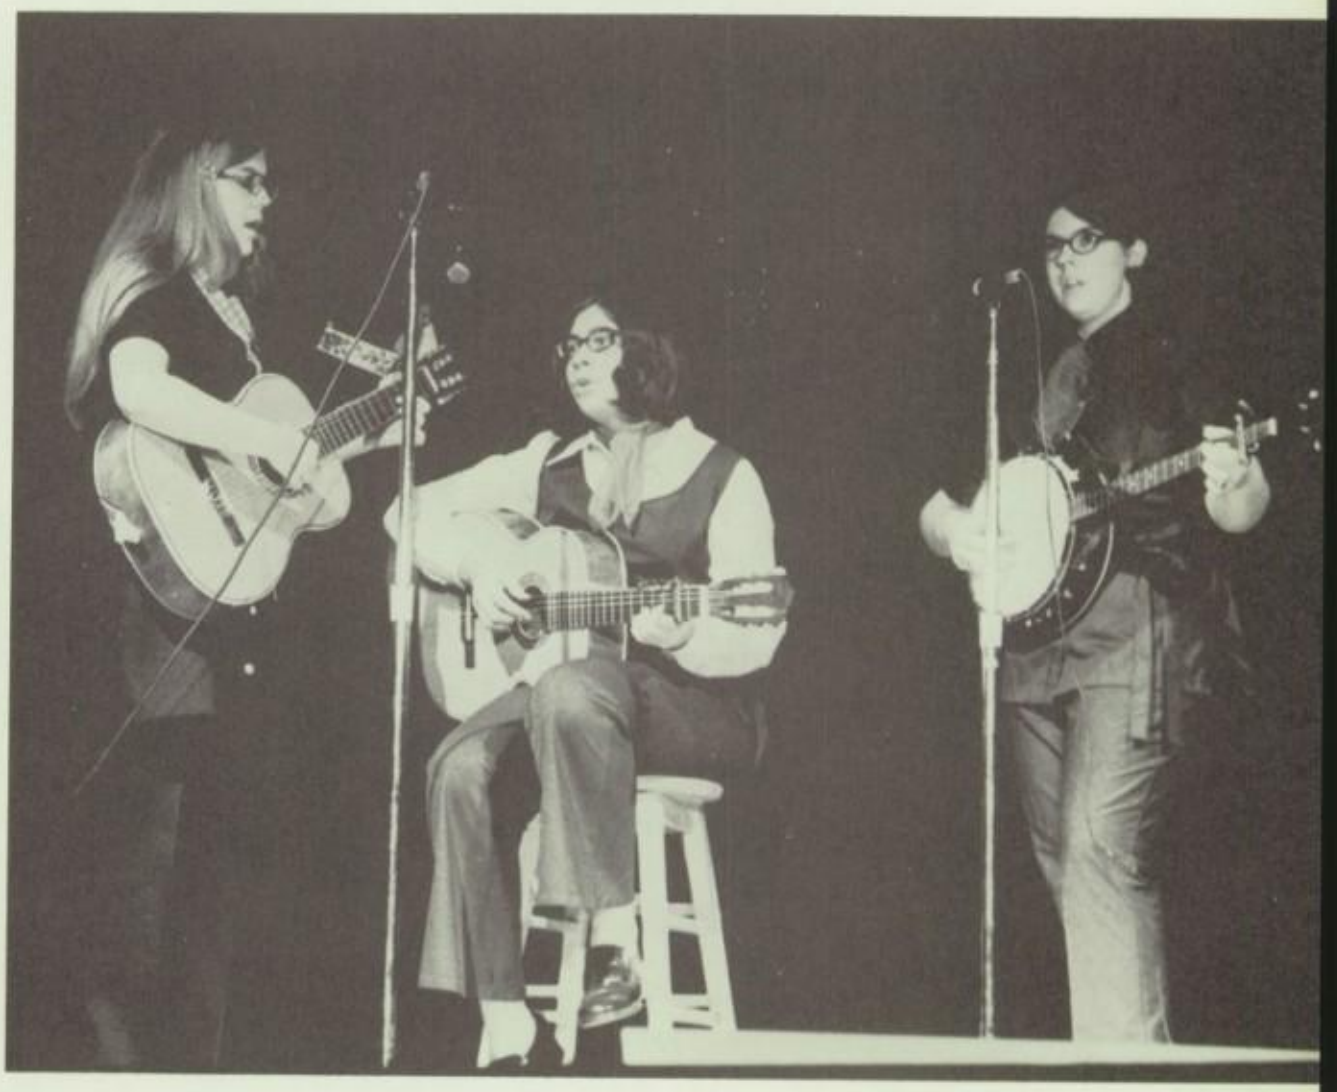
Sponsored by the Hi-Y and the Band, the Muhl Revue featured a cast of 90 students, composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Music for the show was provided by the "Spoilers," directed by Mr. Henry (Hank) Hoffman.



Each student involves himself in several aspects of the production so that he might better appreciate the teamwork necessary. This business of teamwork and respect for others is one of several important lessons to be learned while doing a show, and how applicable it is to the lives of our young performers.







Our whole school atmosphere is built on the philosophy that not only must we teach the academic disciplines, but also, we have a responsibility to prepare our students to take a place in this complex society. What better way is there to instill teamwork, and stamina than through a stage revue where we can also experience the aesthetics at the same time, painlessly.

Cross Country: Sport of Endurance

This year the Muhlenberg harriers sprinted to new heights. Under the direction of Coach Dudek, the team posted its best season with a 10-3 record. Credit for establishing such a successful season was due largely to the outstanding performances of underclassmen. However, the seniors must not be forgotten. With a surprising run by senior Art Evans at the District Meet, the team captured third place. Throughout the year, the JV's were undefeated, and at the District Run they placed first.

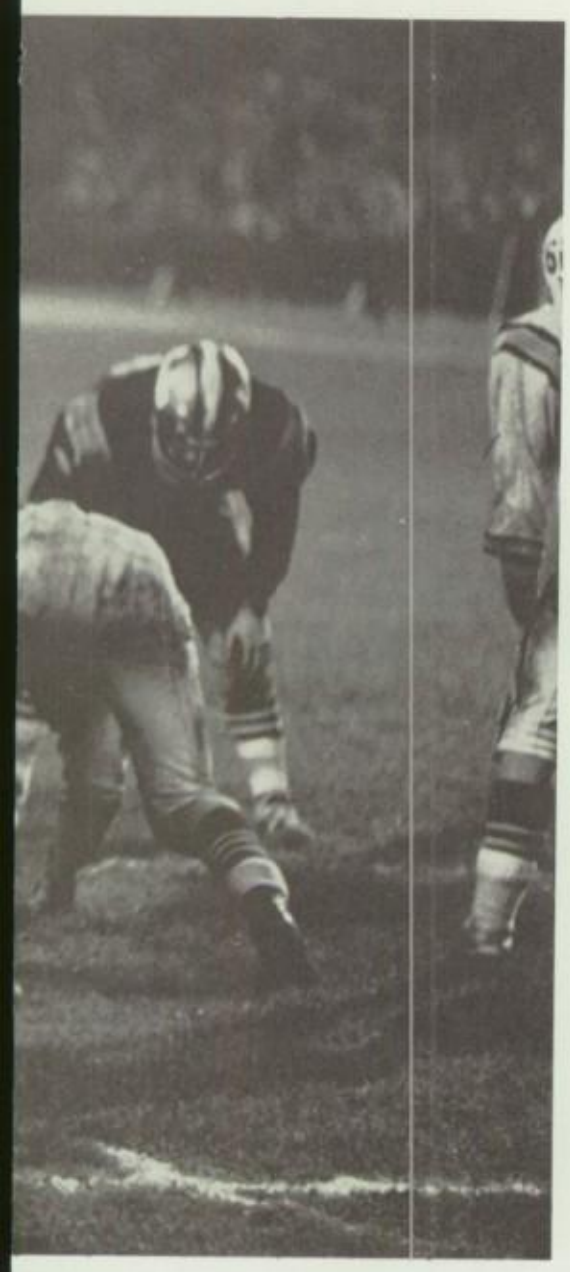
Football: A Season of Thrills!



The mighty Muhls pounded their way to a 4-5-1 record. The figures are deceiving, as this was truly a most exciting season.

After shutting out Daniel Boone and Central Catholic, they met the Spring-Ford varsity and were dealt a crushing 12-6 defeat. Struggling to regain the winning column, they dropped the following two games to the Lebanon Catholic and Lancaster Catholic High School teams.

Then, meeting in the annual Governor Mifflin classic, they emerged the victors with the unbelievable score of 34-14. Squeezing by the Hurricanes, they rushed forward, eager to confront the unbeaten Bulldogs of Wilson. Although the mighty Muhls gave a record setting performance, the Wilson gridders were too powerful. The contest ended with the score 26-53, but our team had won a moral victory against Gurski's score-thirsty "Bulldogs."

Laden with injuries, our varsity rounded out the season by tying Pius X at Homecoming and losing a final tough one to Cedar Crest.

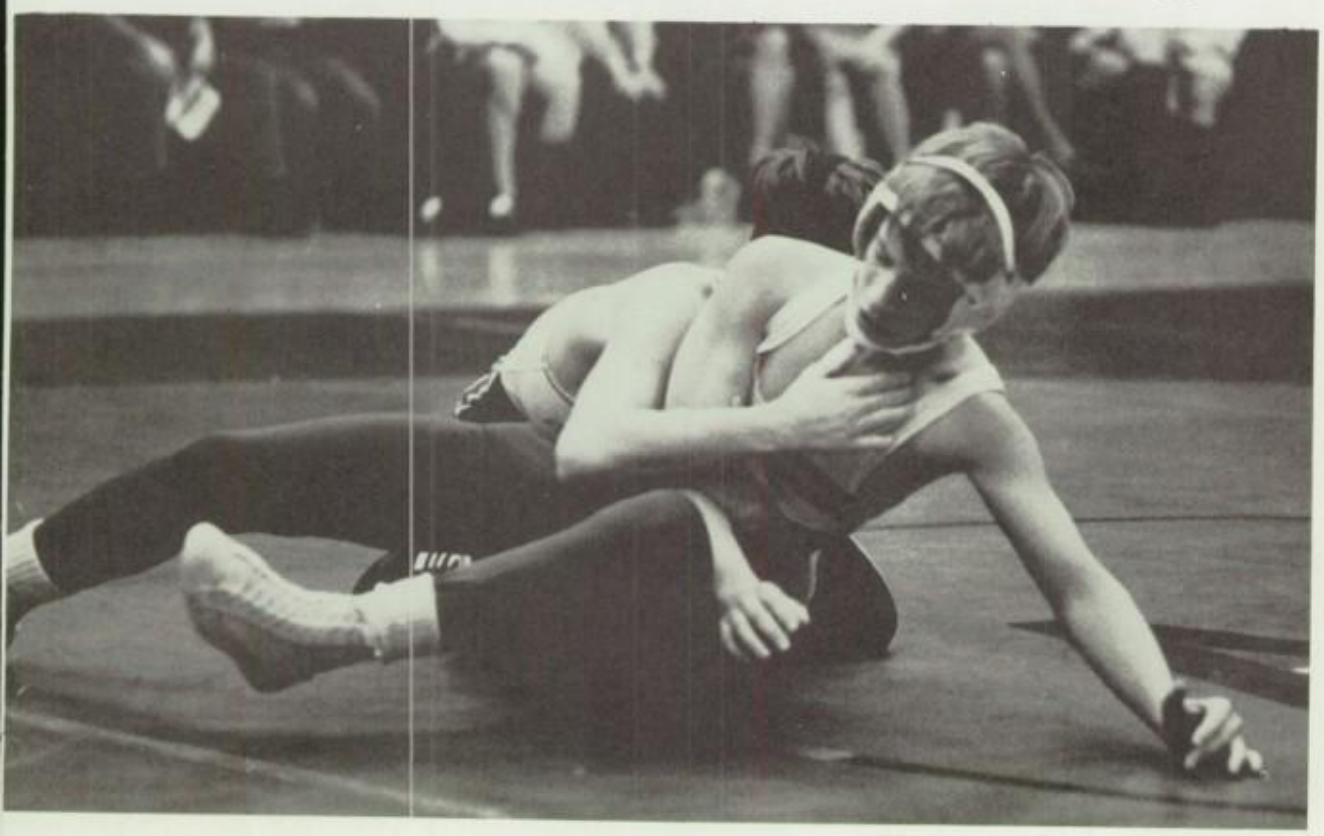
Wrestling: Man Against Man



No other sport breeds the rivalry and competitive spirit that wrestling does. Tremendous excitement is generated as one individual grapples with another in exhausting and grueling combat. Wrestling is truly an individual sport, for on the mat the wrestler has nothing to rely on, but his own physical ability. Coached by Mr. Walls, the varsity pinned and decisioned its way to a 6-7 record. Assisting Coach Walls with the team, especially the junior varsity, was Mr. David Evans.

Basketball: A Season for Rebuilding.

The varsity compiled a 4-17 record. Having lost all the major starters from the 1969 championship team, Coach Millard started fresh and fashioned an exciting team with great potential and depth. Although the thrills of victory were constantly denied them, the team continually fought with determination and spirit. This was a team of which Muhlenberg should be proud, because they showed true sportsmanship.

The junior varsity, under the careful eyes of Mr. L. Seip, registered a 7-13 season. Contemplating the future we can look for new and better things from basketball.

Bowling: Make That Spare!

The Muhlenberg Varsity Bowling Squad rolled its way into another fine season. The intramural bowling program and the local leagues keep the bowling team supplied with experienced and excellent bowlers. Such excellence was shown by seniors Ray Schlegel and Jim Chura. The team closed the season with a 11-4-1 record. Coaching and encouraging the team was Mr. Robert DeLong.

TRACK AND FIELD: Striders keep pace all season.

The early Greeks, (believing in the ideal of a "sound mind in a sound body."), encouraged the sport of track and field. Today, emphasis is still placed on physical ability and a healthy attitude. The track team showed its quality by registering a 5-1 dual meet record.

With outstanding performances by seniors Davis Salks, Mike Krick, Art Evans, and Karl Sweigert and Juniors Tony Dodds and Dan Keiper, the team scored well in the county meets and captured the runner-up spot in the Muhlenberg Streamline Meet. The squad was coached by Mr. Robert Lauser, Mr. Robert Dudek, Mr. Salvadore Messina and head coach Mr. Barrett Oxenreider.

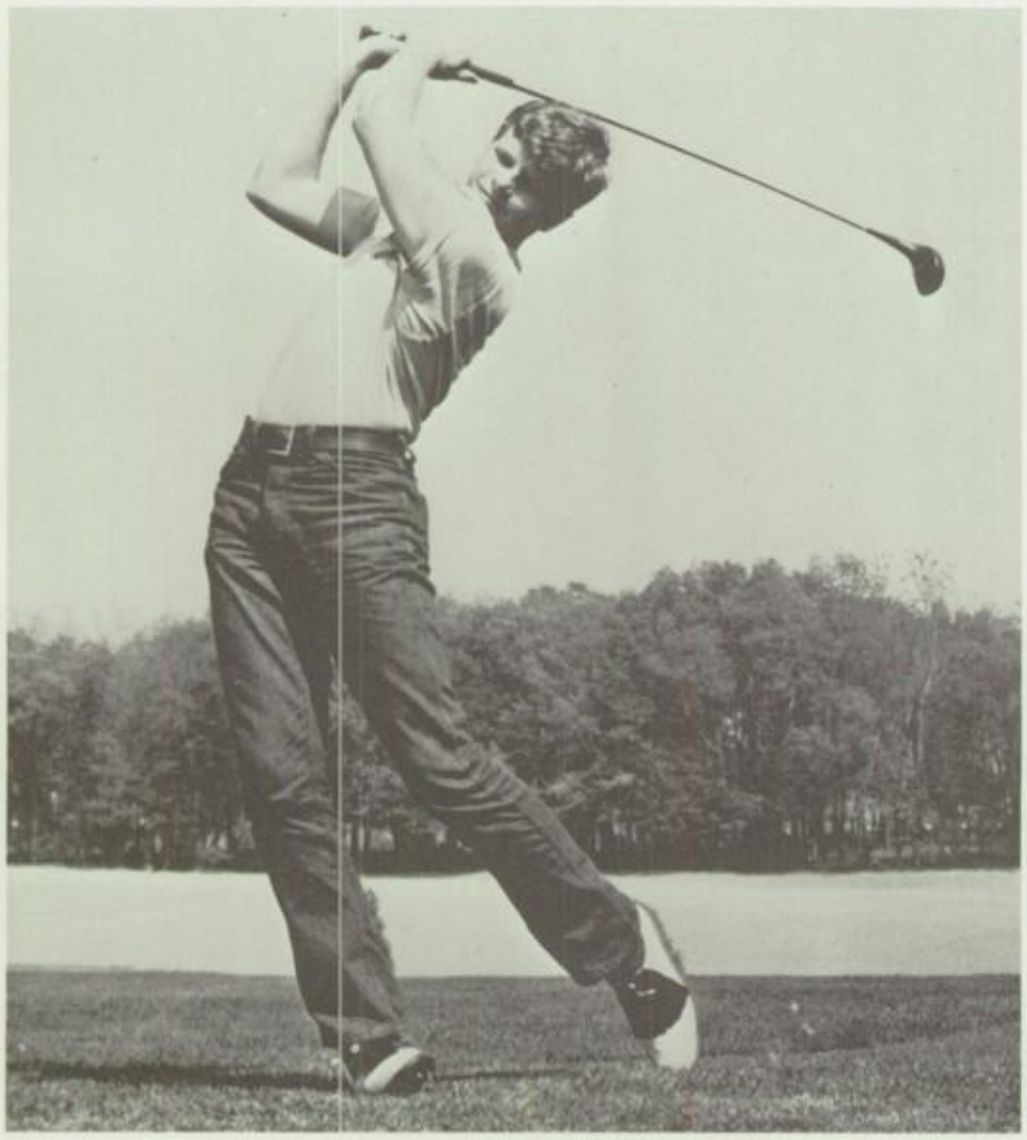
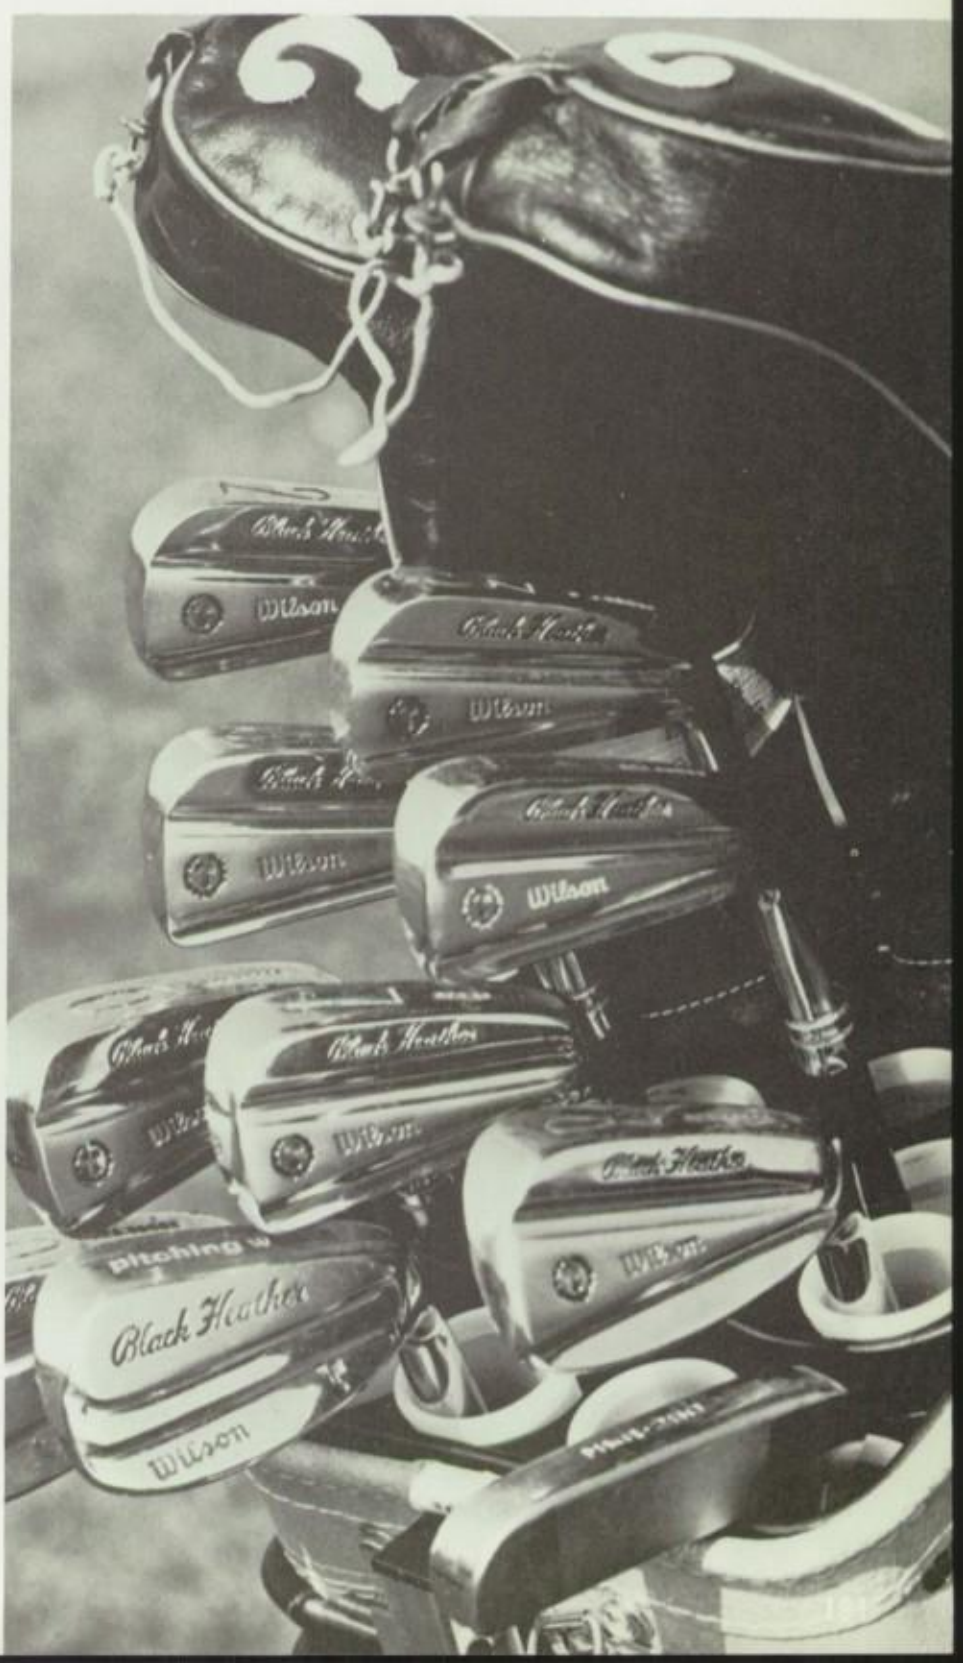
The golf team, coached by Mr. William Wunder, putted its way to a 8-5 overall season. In league competition they ended the season with a 4-4 record. The varsity consisted of freshman, Marty Dorminy; juniors, Rich Miller and Brooke Young; and seniors, Tom Beaver and Mike Leisey. Besides the starting five, a host of other students went out for golf, showing the tremendous interest in the game. With three starters returning and a wide field to choose from for the underclassmen, the team should prove to be a tough competitor next year.





TENNIS: Ties Second in Eastern Division

Tennis is a sport that requires great individual physical and mental agility. A player must not only move faster than his opponent, but he must also out-think him. Long before the season started, Coach Neil Dreibelbis began whipping the team together with calisthenics and running. Obviously the hard work paid off, for the team boasted a 9-3 record. Not to be forgotten are Mr. DeLuca's summer tennis clinics. The DeLuca-Dreibelbis duo has brought tennis at Muhlenberg from obscurity to the respectful position it now holds. The story does not end here, for with continued interest in tennis the future looks very good.

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to, among other things, the all American sport of baseball. This year was no exception as many students competed for the positions on the baseball squads. Coached by Mr. Leroy Seip, who was assisted by Mr. Charles Miller, the Varsity had a shot at the division championship at the end of the first half of league play; however, they were defeated by some tough teams and completed the season with a 4-6 record. The Jr. Varsity Squad coached by Mr. Carl Richie, compiled a season. With many players returning next year, the future looks promising for baseball at Muhlenberg.

Girls' sports provide exciting interscholastic competition for the athletic co-ed and boundless pleasure for the spectator. The feminine basketball team, coached by Mrs. L. Hill posted a 9-1 record. Playing some tough games, they captured the honor of sharing the title of Berks County Girl's Basketball Champions. Girl's field hockey, coached by Miss Eberly, tied up the fall sports program. They ended the season with a 3-2-5 record. The girl's teams are truly a credit to both Muhlenberg and to themselves.
